

REPRESENTATIVE ENGLISH PLAYS

FROM THE MIDDLE AGES
TO THE END OF THE
NINETEENTH CENTURY

JOHN S. P. TATLOCK
ROBERT G. MARTIN

This is the only one-volume collection of English plays that includes representative dramas from the earliest period to our own generation. It is of value both to the student of the drama and to the general reader. The periods represented are: Middle Ages, Elizabethan, Restoration, Eighteenth Century, Nineteenth Century. In the book are twenty-five complete plays, each with an introduction giving the necessary facts about its authorship, composition, etc., as well as critical and interpretative matter, especially in reference to its time. In their foot-notes Mr. Tatlock and Mr. Martin, the editors, give terse answers to questions any reader not familiar with a play or with the language of its time is likely to ask.

A Syllabus of World Classics Christian Nat Wenger,1930 The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928 The Living Drama Nellie Burget Miller,1924 This study will endeavor to present in simple and concise form a survey of this continuous dramatic movement from its earliest recorded expression to contemporary moments under a single cover Since to know thoroughly the dramatic output of any one period might command the industry of a lifetime the task is a colossal one and precludes any pretense at completeness the treatment is suggestive rather than informative and should be supplemented by a study of the plays indicated under each section After all the important thing is not the painful piling of fact upon fact but gaining an intelligent working knowledge of the whole and knowing exactly where to turn for detail when it is needed The information has been gathered from many works upon the various phases to which the writer is deeply indebted all of which are indicated in the bibliographies We purpose then to take a sort of Cook s Tour over the whole domain of the drama touching the main points of interest and leaving the reader to return and explore at leisure
