Reproductive Genetics Gender And The Body:

Reproductive Genetics, Gender and the Body Elizabeth Ettorre,2013-04-15 This book is all about reproductive genetics a sociological concept developed to define the use of DNA based technologies in the medical management and supervision of reproduction and pregnant women In a searching analysis Elizabeth Ettorre uncovers the hidden social processes involved in the development of these technologies Focussing on prenatal screening she explores how the key concepts of gender and the body are intertwined with the process of building genetic knowledge and some of the unintended consequences for women These include the injection of biology into social relationships and the development of a gendered discourse of shame and stigmatisation in which the perfect body becomes idealised and new conceptions of disability are shaped It becomes clear that the modernist tradition of scientific disinterestedness is being replaced by a new ethic the making of moral judgements by scientists Reproductive Genetics Gender and the Body draws on interviews with European medical legal and nursing professionals and raises important issues around the gendered female body the site of genetic capital It challenges professional and scholar alike to grapple with and think through their responsibilities in this complex field where the competing issues have yet to be resolved

Anderson,2008 Female drug addicts are often stereotyped either as promiscuous lazy and selfish or as weak scared and trapped into addiction These depictions typify the pathology and powerlessness narrative that has historically characterized popular and academic conversations about female substance abusers Neither Villain Nor Victim attempts to correct these polarizing perspectives by presenting a critical feminist analysis of the drug world By shifting the discussion to one centered on women s agency and empowerment this book reveals the complex experiences and social relationships of women addicts Essays explore a range of topics including the many ways that women negotiate the illicit drug world how former drug addicts manage the more intimate aspects of their lives as they try to achieve abstinence how women tend to use intervention resources more positively than their male counterparts and how society can improve its response to female substance abusers by moving away from social controls such as the criminalization of prostitution and rehabilitative programs that have been shown to fail women in the long term Advancing important new perspectives about the position of women in the drug world this book is essential reading in courses on women and crime feminist theory and criminal justice New Literature on Women ,2000 The Evolution of Alienation Lauren Langman,Devorah Kalekin-Fishman,2006 Building on the Marxian view of alienation as the inevitable consequence of wage labor that divests human beings of control over their life forces The Evolution of Alienation provides new insights into contemporary conditions Contributors explore how alienation is fostered not only by television freak shows and shock music but also by programmed schooling and even by some scientific theories Others show that the contradictory relationships possible in some domains among them new technologies and domestic work disclose niches of fulfillment that belie alienation Humankind Evolving A. Roberto Frisancho,2006 Ethnicity and Screening for Sickle Cell/thalassaemia Simon Dyson,2005 Screening policies for sickle cell and thalassaemia have only recently been formalized in the UK This book asks what types of ethnicity information are relevant for health professionals to ask as part of this screening and why Through extensive use of interview material the book draws upon the experiences of sickle cell and thalassaemia counsellors who have been at the forefront of understanding in this area The book Demonstrates how best practice for screening in a multi ethnic society requires us to better understand the myth of races the meanings of concepts such as ethnicity and racialization and the relation of racism to issues of citizenship immigration asylum and nationality Shows how learning from best practice for screening could be a model for developing cultural competency across all types of health care provision Clarifies through the use of the biologically grounded exemplar of sickle cell and thalassaemia debates of race and ethnicity for those working in social sciences Listens to the voices of experience and validates the hitherto unacknowledged achievements of professional women from minoritized ethnic groups Extensive direct quotations from experienced sickle cell and thalassemia counsellors Explanations of key concepts such as race ethnicity and racism Explanation of the political social and historical factors underlying tensions in asking an ethnicity questions Further resources and website information
