Requiem Directors Script:

Requiem Jerome McDonough,1977-06-01     Requiem Forrest McDonald, Ellen Shapiro McDonald,1988     A Requiem for the Running Man James Lineberger,1969     Derek Jarman Rowland Wymer,2019-01-04 This book gives detailed and original critical readings of all eleven of Derek Jarman's feature length films arguing that he occupies a major and influential place in European and world cinema rather than merely being a cult figure It places particular emphasis on the importance of Renaissance art and literature for Jarman and emphasises his interest in Jungian psychology Wymer shows how Jarman used his films to take his audience with him on an inner journey in search of the self whilst remaining fully aware of the dangers of such a journey Making substantial use of Jarman's unpublished papers as well as all his published works Wymer argues that the films are orientated towards a much wider audience than is often supposed They are addressed to anyone of whatever gender or sexuality who is prepared to go on a journey in search of him or her self and to become Jarman's accomplice in the dream world of the soul     Rob Wagner's Beverly Hills Script ,1929     Dutch Film ,1987

International Film Guide, 1990 Peter Cowie,1991 This annual guide on global film making offers a unique survey of trends achievements and personalities during the past year As usual the guide selects five Directors of the Year for appraisal Danny Boyle Takeshi Kitano Soren Kragh Jacobsen David Mamet and Spike Lees This edition has updated sections on film festivals music and archives     Words for the Theatre David Cole,2019-05-29 In Words for the Theatre playwright David Cole pursues a course of dramaturgical self questioning on the part of a playwright centred on the act of playwriting The book's four essays each offer a dramaturgical perspective on a different aspect of the playwright's practice How does the playwright juggle the transcriptive and prescriptive aspects of their activity Does the ultimate performance of a playtext in fact represent something to which all writing aspires Does the playwright's process of withdrawing to create their text echo a similar process in the theatre more widely Finally how can the playwright counter theatre's pervasive leaning towards the mistake of realism Suited to playwrights teachers and higher level students this volume of essays offers reflections on the questions that confront every playwright from an author well versed in supplying words for the theatre     Leonard Maltin's 2009 Movie Guide Leonard Maltin,Luke Sader, Mike Clark,2008 Offers readers a comprehensive reference to the world of film including more than ten thousand DVD titles along with information on performers ratings running times plots and helpful features     Luminous presence Alexandra Parsons,2021-11-02 Luminous presence Derek Jarman's life writing is the first book to analyse the prolific writing of queer icon Derek Jarman Although he is well known for his avant garde filmmaking his garden and his AIDS activism he is also the author of over a dozen books many of which are autobiographical Much of Jarman's exploration of post war queer identity and imaginative response to HIV AIDS can be found in his books such as the lyrical AIDS diaries Modern Nature and Smiling in Slow Motion This book fully explores for the first time the remarkable range and depth of Jarman's writing Spanning his career Alexandra Parsons argues that Jarman's self reflexive

Paperbound Books in Print, 1991 Faulkner On and Off the Page Carl Rollyson, 2025-04-15 Though numerous biographies have been published on William Faulkner readers are often presented conflicting interpretations of his life and work Faulkner's view of himself and his own family was mercurial and it is widely acknowledged that Faulkner was an unreliable narrator of his own life As a result biographies of Faulkner echo and complicate the multitude of ways he portrayed himself accepting that truth if it exists is subjective Like his work Faulkner's own life then is not only open to different readings but welcomes them within the landscape of his oeuvre Faulkner On and Off the Page acknowledges the challenges of factifying a life into a textual narrative while also emphasizing the potential for biography to establish a throughline that traces how literature emerges from life and in turn shapes the life narrative Faulkner constructed for himself Unburdened by the sanctity of the written word Faulkner embraced mutability and perpetual evolution This process of reinvention also manifests within the pages of Faulkner's biographies as each biographer brings a unique context and perspective shaped by generations of Faulkner scholars Rather than thinking of Faulkner as exclusively the great high modernist who strayed to Hollywood when he needed the money and stayed home when he didn't this book portrays an unsettled writer incessantly on the move incorporating what only looked like alien elements into his work while maintaining a public persona that disparaged anything that did not fit the narrative of the novelist he created in interviews essays and speeches This book attempts to carry on the work of finding the man on the page even as he is shaping a life off of it
