Research Methods Learning To Become A Critical Research Consumer:

Research Methods Ronald C. Martella, J. Ronald Nelson, Nancy E. Marchand-Martella, 1999 Research Methods thoroughly covers both quantitative and qualitative oriented research Unlike many texts which begin with an introduction to research and then move directly to how to conduct research this text develops critical thinking skills about research and is designed to produce knowledgeable and informed critical research consumers Each chapter builds on the information in preceding ones to focus on the importance of research methodology and interpretation rather than many competitors traditional coverage of statistical calculations and analyses The thorough and extensive coverage of all research methods combined with a focus on critical thinking makes this text truly unique

Understanding and Interpreting Educational Research Ronald C. Martella, J. Ron Nelson, Robert L. Morgan, Nancy E. Marchand-Martella, 2013-04-18 This user friendly text takes a learn by doing approach to exploring research design issues in education and psychology offering evenhanded coverage of quantitative qualitative mixed methods and single case designs Readers learn the basics of different methods and steps for critically examining any study s design data and conclusions using sample peer reviewed journal articles as practice opportunities The text is unique in featuring full chapters on survey methods evaluation reliability and validity action research and research syntheses Pedagogical Features Include An exemplar journal article at the end of each methods chapter together with questions and activities for critiquing it including where applicable checklist forms to identify threats to internal and external validity plus lists of additional research examples Research example boxes showing how studies are designed to address particular research questions In every chapter numbered chapter objectives bulleted summaries subheadings written as questions a running glossary and end of chapter discussion questions Electronic Instructor s Resource Manual with Test Bank provided separately includes chapter outlines answers to exercises discussion questions and illustrative example questions and PowerPoints

Methods of Research on Human Development and Families Theodore N. Greenstein, Shannon N. Davis, 2019-07-11 Methods of Research on Human Development and Families is an introduction to quantitative and qualitative research methods that teaches students how to be intelligent and critical consumers of research on families This new book has been adapted from the author team s previous SAGE text Methods of Family Research and includes applications and examples from both family science and human development research With a focus on interpreting and understanding research techniques rather than doing research this text illustrates how research on families is conducted and helps students gain the competence and confidence to effectively read interpret and critique published research reports
