impossible to choose when neither decision feels like a clear win These aren't idle musings for ivory tower religious gurus They hit home in the daily grind From mundane breakfast dilemmas to high stakes calls like whether to end a relationship take a new job or downsize our home And our jobs and church life are not exempt from this either Whether it's hiring firing taking moral stands or setting a new church budget life relentlessly demands decisions The book Includes a worksheet for decision making and an index of scriptures on which Biblical decision making is based [The biblical illustrator: or, Anecdotes \[&c.\] on the verses of the Bible, by J.S.
