Making Education Count Developing And Using International Indicators:

Making Education Count Albert Tuijnman, Norberto Bottani, Centre for Educational Research and Innovation, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 1994 The chapters in this book were prepared during the second phase of a study conducted by the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development to develop a set of International Indicators of Education Systems INES They were among the many studies presented at the General Assembly of the INES Project in Lugano Switzerland September 16 18 1991 Taken together these papers present what is currently known about the organization development measurement and uses of international education indicators Attention is given to the political contexts within which education indicators are used for informing policy makers The 18 chapters deal mainly with conceptual and analytical issues in the organization of education indicators They are grouped thematically into four parts Part I History and Definition of Indicators presents a framework for the other contributions Part II Development of Indicators discusses issues in the development and implementation of different types of indicators Part III Indicators of Outcomes of Education is concerned with indicators of learning student achievement and other educational outcomes such as labor market destinations The five chapters in Part IV Interpreting Indicators for Policy focus on the uses and abuses of reporting and interpreting international education indicators Each chapter contains references Contains 10 tables and 16 figures SLD

Measuring University Internationalization Catherine Yuan Gao, 2019-08-07 This book investigates university internationalization in different national contexts and compares internationalization performance across national boundaries Internationalization has been recognised by policymakers as the key to perform successfully within the new global context the author identifies primary motivations for universities to embrace this agenda and deconstructs the phenomenon into measurable dimensions and components Using extensive qualitative data from university leaders and practitioners this book analyses the global forces that shape the international education landscape and reviews the existing instruments for measuring internationalization In doing so the author proposes an integrated understanding of university internationalization and indicates benchmarks that can help to quantify and measure this phenomenon This book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of university internationalization

World Education Research Yearbook 2015 Lori Diane Hill, Felice J. Levine, 2015-05-15 The World Education Research Association WERA is an association of major national regional and international specialty research associations dedicated to advancing education research as a scientific and scholarly field WERA undertakes initiatives that are global in nature and thus transcend what any one association can accomplish in its own country region or area of specialization _____ Reflective of the latest trends in education research this inaugural volume of the World Education Research Yearbook captures the diverse concepts and various arenas of inquiry that are engaging education researchers across the globe Comprised of nine chapters the 2015 Yearbook brings together some of the most accomplished and emerging scholars in the field from a breadth of universities and research institutions in the United States

Europe Australia Asia and South America The Yearbook opens with the Presidential Address given at the 4th WERA Focal Meeting by Yin Cheong Cheng who proposes a new paradigm of educational reform to address the challenges impressed upon educators by the increased globalization of the modern world Subsequent chapters make vivid the strengths of research with a broader work view Chapter contributions shift the discourse through a global lens addressing such topics as how international children s TV can be used to further global health education and awareness strategies for remedying low academic achievement among marginalized social and culture groups and a new global model designed to aid countries in developing more effective indicators of quality education The 2015 World Education Research Yearbook is a crucial and long awaited contribution to the field of education research Its relevance extends beyond the borders of any single country or continent to encompass a worldwide perspective on educational developments which are of great value to researchers educators and students alike

Psycho-pedagogical research in a Double-degree programme Guido Benvenuto, Maria Serena Veggetti, 2020-03-31 In this volume we have collected the contributions of many colleagues from the teaching board of Double Degree Joint Master s Programme in Pedagogy and Educational Sciences and Training of Sapienza University of Rome and two prestigious universities of the Russian Federation Moscow Federal University for Psychology and Pedagogy MSUPE and North Caucasus Federal University NCFU at Stavropol The present anthology is meant to review the positions and studies that individual teachers from the different universities involved presented in recent years during online courses in the lecturing in the meetings and to discuss their possible opportunities The volume puts forward this programme to spread its structure the theoretical assumptions and the various positions The contributions are meant to testify a keen interest in internationalization that Sapienza is carrying out The contributions collected give the reader a chance to share a common interest in the promising approach implied by the Historical cultural trend in Psychology and Pedagogy of the Vygotsky s thought which seems a must in psycho pedagogical reflections and in organizing and evaluating school activities

Europe's Lifelong Learning Markets, Governance and Policy Marcella Milana, Gosia Klatt, Sandra Vatrella, 2020-07-20 This book explores European governance and policy coordination within lifelong learning markets Using an instruments approach the editors and contributors examine the ways in which governance mechanisms employed by the European Union influence policy to regulate lifelong learning and intervene in lifelong learning markets at both European and national levels Filling an important gap in the current literature this book examines how strengthened policy coordination at the EU level contributed to the blurring of boundaries between policy fields and the redefinition of the function of adult education after the 2008 recession Divided into three parts this book draws on a range of case studies from countries including Spain Denmark Bulgaria and the UK It will be of interest and value to students and scholars of education policy and governance adult education and lifelong learning

Global Governance of Education Maren Elfert, Christian Ydesen, 2023-09-22 This book examines the educational role of three international organizations created as part of the post

World War II multilateral architecture the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO the World Bank and the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD These organizations have significantly promoted and shaped education as a fundamental feature of the modernization of society and contributed to the globalization of educational norms policies and technologies Drawing on primary source materials and interviews the book provides novel perspectives to the literature on the global governance of education by focusing on the historical entanglements relations and power struggles between these three organizations rather than treating them separately The study sheds light on the homogenizing effects of globalized educational policy making and the shifting power dynamics in the global governance of education This book makes a very distinctive and important contribution to the literature that critically analyses the influence of the global agencies on education globally it goes beyond the standard discursive analyses of policy texts to also explore the history of those organisations through archival research and in depth interviews of the key personnel What emerges is a powerful analysis which locates those agencies within their historical epochs and shines a light on their tensions and micro politics both internally and between organisations Paul Morris Professor of Comparative Education Institute of Education University College London UK A must read historical account of the intermingling boundary setting and competition between the three big intergovernmental organizations IOs in education OECD UNESCO and the World Bank Different from other scholars that document how these IOs have transformed themselves in response to external and internal changes Elfert and Ydesen draw attention to the relational aspect how have these three IOs navigated conflict carved niches and used and abused each other to amplify and expand their own mission How have they done so in an environment that is crowded with intergovernmental and international organizations each with a claim to govern education globally Gita Steiner Khamsi Professor of Comparative and International Education Teachers College Columbia University UNESCO Chair of Comparative Education Policy of the Geneva Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies This volume is a thoughtful and timely work of scholarship Understanding the roles of UNESCO the OECD and the World Bank is central to understanding contemporary education in global perspective Elfert and Ydesen s historical analysis sets out in rigorous detail how these organisations have evolved and what has shaped and driven this evolution The historical analysis is complemented by contemporary interview data facilitating an actor level analysis as well as a broader picture The book is conceptually and theoretically rich while being accessibly written the authors manage complexity remarkably well For anyone interested in global governance and the role of international organisations or anyone who wants to understand in general how global educational agendas have developed and converged this book is a most valuable read Michele Schweisfurth Professor of Comparative and International Education University of Glasgow UK Chapter UNESCO the OECD and the World Bank A Global Governance Perspective is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link.springer.com
