

ABC PTY LTD Document Style Guide

Purpose and scope

In accordance with the ABC PTY LTD Information Policy, these procedures describe the Organisation's requirements for producing and storing written communication in a consistent format through:

- appropriate styling
- consistent document handling procedures
- following appropriate protocols.

Responsibilities

All staff are responsible for planning, drafting and finalising documents used as written communication.

Procedure

All written communication prepared by ABC PTY LTD staff should be developed in accordance with the following guidelines:

- The purpose, tone, format and communication style of the document should be suitable for the intended audience.
- All documents should be checked for readability, grammar, spelling and sentence and paragraph construction before they are distributed.
- Copies of documents should be filed in accordance with the information management policies and procedures.

Document style guide

- All letters are to be sent on ABC PTY LTD letterhead, which requires the document to be set out with a left and right margin of 2.5 cm and a 7 cm space at the top to accommodate the letterhead.
- All documents are to be left justified.
- Faxes require a cover page, which is prepared on the fax cover template.
- The standard font for printed text such as memos, faxes and letters is Arial 10 point.
- The standard font for digital communication, such as email, is Arial 10 point.
- All letters are to be signed and include the name and position title of the sender.
- All faxes are to be sent with a completed ABC PTY LTD fax coversheet as their first page.
- All correspondence to customers concerning complaints must be authorised by the Customer Service Manager.
- All internal and external communication requires a subject heading and is to be dated.
