About Versa Drives

At Versa Drives Private Limited (VDPL) which is based in India, we manufacture motor control products. We have good competence in designing and manufacturing motor control drives, electric motors, and super-energy-efficient appliances. Our products are well-known for their reliability, cost-effectiveness, and efficiency. An expertise of 30 years in the field has made us pioneers in technology.

We operate with a mission to save millions of electricity units every year by designing and manufacturing innovative products which are in harmony with aspiration and sustainability. At present, we are serving both the business and consumer markets by providing customized motor control solutions to original equipment manufacturers and super-energy-efficient ceiling fan named "Superfan" to retail customers.

About Superfan

Superfan project is our greatest challenge as it involves making a super energy-efficient brushless DC electric motor for ceiling fans for a lesser cost. As ceiling fans are one of the most common electrical appliances in the world - about 400 million being used in India alone - the opportunity
