C. Chew Albert Croll Baugh,1948 A Literary History of England Albert Croll Baugh,1948 The purpose of this book is to provide a comprehensive history of the literature of England an account that is at once scholarly and readable capable of meeting the needs of mature students and of appealing to cultivated readers generally While the literature of England is commonly thought of as literature in English it is not likely that anyone will quarrel with the fact that some mention is made of writings in Latin and French during the medieval period at a time when these languages served as vernaculars for certain classes The Latin writings of the Renaissance and later periods however have been omitted for lack of space Nor will anyone object to the inclusion of Scottish and Irish writers who do not belong geographically to England Custom sufficiently sanctions including them The original plan brought the history to an end with the year 1939 the outbreak of the Second World War but delay in publication caused by the war has permitted reference to a few events of a date subsequent to 1939 Preface The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Frederick Wilse Bateson,1941 The Cambridge bibliography of English literature, edited by F.W. ...
