Mathew And Margins:

Matthew and the Margins Warren Carter, 2000 This verse by verse commentary presents the Gospel of Matthew as a counter narrative that shapes the group of Jesus followers as an alternative community able to resist the dominant authorities both in Rome and in the synagogue The Gospel anticipates the time when Jesus will return and establish God's reign over all including the powers in Rome Breaking Matthew into five narrative blocks Carter carefully considers historical literary cultural and ecclesial factors as he explores the themes of marginality and power A masterful introduction outlines these approaches and surveys other studies on Matthew Mathews' Quarterly Journal of Rectal and Gastro-intestinal Diseases, 1894 Catalogue of the Magnificent Collection of Printed Books, the Property of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Ashburnham Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge, 1897 Powering Empire On Barak, 2020-03-03 The Age of Empire was driven by coal and the Middle East as an idea was made by coal Coal's imperial infrastructure presaged the geopolitics of oil that wreaks carnage today as carbonization threatens our very climate Powering Empire argues that we cannot promote worldwide decarbonization without first understanding the history of the globalization of carbon energy How did this black rock come to have such long lasting power over the world economy Focusing on the flow of British carbon energy to the Middle East On Barak excavates the historic nexus between coal and empire to reveal the political and military motives behind what is conventionally seen as a technological innovation He provocatively recounts the carbon intensive entanglements of Western and non Western powers and reveals unfamiliar resources such as Islamic risk aversion and Gandhian vegetarianism for a climate justice that relies on more diverse and ethical solutions worldwide Catalogue Maggs Bros, 1910 Journal of the Royal Horticultural Society Royal Horticultural Society (Great Britain), 1928 Vols for 1846 55 include Proceedings at meetings of the society Journal of the Royal Horticultural Society of London Royal Horticultural Society (Great Britain), 1926 Vols for 1869 1952 include Extracts from the proceedings of the Royal Horticultural Society Mathews' Medical Quarterly, 1894 NAGA Report, 1973 Matthews v. Joannes Bros. Co., 156 MICH 663 (1909), 1909 13 Sojourners, Sultans, and Slaves Gunja SenGupta, Awam Amkpa, 2025-12-16 In the nineteenth century global systems of capitalism and empire knit the North Atlantic and Indian Ocean worlds into international networks in contest over the meanings of slavery and freedom Sojourners Sultans and Slaves mines multinational archives to illuminate the Atlantic reverberations of US mercantile projects free labor experiments and slaveholding in western Indian Ocean societies Gunja SenGupta and Awam Amkpa profile transnational human rights campaigns They show how the discourses of poverty kinship and care could be adapted to defend servitude in different parts of the world revealing the tenuous boundaries that such discourses shared with liberal contractual notions of freedom An intercontinental cast of empire builders and migr's slavers and reformers a cotton queen and courtesans and fugitive slaves and concubines populates the pages fleshing out on a granular level the interface between the personal domestic and international politics of slavery in the East in the age of empire By extending the transnational framework of US slavery and abolition histories beyond the Atlantic Gunja SenGupta and Awam Amkpa recover vivid stories and prompt reflections on the comparative workings of subaltern agency

Time's Monster Priya Satia, 2020-10-20 British historians influenced the empire in critical ways Time's Monster shows how the modern vision of history as a form of ethics empowered historians to shape policy while history became a justification for domination Later alternative notions of history revised the discipline's ethics and effects reminding us that ideas have consequences

Dark Commerce Louise I. Shelley, 2018-11-13 A comprehensive look at the world of illicit trade Though mankind has traded tangible goods for millennia recent technology has changed the fundamentals of trade in both legitimate and illegal economies In the past three decades the most advanced forms of illicit trade have broken with all historical precedents and as Dark Commerce shows now operate as if on steroids tied to computers and social media In this new world of illicit commerce which benefits states and diverse participants trade is impersonal and anonymized and vast profits are made in short periods with limited accountability to sellers intermediaries and purchasers Louise Shelley examines how new technology communications and globalization fuel the exponential growth of dangerous forms of illegal trade the markets for narcotics and child pornography online the escalation of sex trafficking through web advertisements and the sale of endangered species for which revenues total in the hundreds of millions of dollars The illicit economy exacerbates many of the world's destabilizing phenomena the perpetuation of conflicts the proliferation of arms and weapons of mass destruction and environmental degradation and extinction Shelley explores illicit trade in tangible goods drugs human beings arms wildlife and timber fish antiquities and ubiquitous counterfeits and contrasts this with the damaging trade in cyberspace where intangible commodities cost consumers and organizations billions as they lose identities bank accounts access to computer data and intellectual property Demonstrating that illicit trade is a business the global community cannot afford to ignore and must work together to address Dark Commerce considers diverse ways of responding to this increasing challenge

Sinews of War and Trade Laleh Khalili, 2021-08-10 How shipping is central to the very fabric of global capitalism In our networked world the realities governing the international movement of freight are easily forgotten But maritime transport remains the bedrock of trade Convoys perpetually crisscross the oceans carrying gas oil ore indeed every type of consumable and commodity These movements though practically invisible mean that control of the seas is vital in an age when no nation can survive on domestic products alone Professor and author Laleh Khalili travelled the Mediterranean the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean aboard gigantic container ships to investigate the secretive and sometimes dangerous world of maritime trade What she discovered was strangely disturbing brutally exploited seafarers enduring loneliness and risking injury to keep the cogs of trade turning In the Arabian peninsula's ports forbidden places encircled by barbed wire and moats of highways the dockers struggle for benefits and political rights as they have for generations Environmental catastrophes threaten with increasing intensity and frequency Around the oil trading nations of the Middle East a history of British colonialism modern US imperialism and local autocracies combine to worsen the conditions of modern seafarers and piracy persists near the Horn of Africa From her research riding the sea lanes and visiting the major Middle Eastern ports Khalili has produced a book that exposes the frayed and tense sinews of modern capital a physical network without which none of our more abstracted webs and systems could operate
