Questions For Benjamin Franklin:

The Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin Benjamin Franklin, David Henry Montgomery, 1927

Questions for Benjamin Franklin Charles Armbruster, 2005-04-13 This biographical sketch about Benjamin Franklin's son introduces a 55 year old man who has just met his father in England for the last time they would ever meet. There is a review of the part which William played in the creation of many of Benjamin's most popular publications. The huge contrast in their frames of mind reflected the awful breach which now separated them from their previously happy and successful lives. During the Revolution William probably discussed all of the questions posed in this book in one form or another but the answers were not ever resolved because they never communicated again after their meeting in 1785.
