Noun-Based Constructions in the History of Portuguese and Spanish Patrícia Amaral, Manuel Delicado Cantero, 2022-04-28 This book explores syntactic and semantic change in three types of construction in Spanish and Portuguese i complex determiner phrases with clausal adjunction el hecho de o facto de ii complex prepositions complementizers and complex connectives sin embargo de sem embargo de so b pena de and iii complex predicates containing light verbs dar consejo conselho de While these constructions are syntactically different they are all clause taking complex expressions containing a noun followed by the functional preposition de of This book is the first work to use a systematic comparative corpus study to explore these expressions together this approach allows individual changes to be distinguished from general changes as well as emphasizing the chronological clustering of changes that involve complex constructions in both languages By studying mechanisms of language change and their outcomes in two sister languages Patricia Amaral and Manuel Delicado Cantero address questions such as How do complex constructions evolve How does the meaning of the noun change when considered in isolation and when compared to the meaning of the whole construction And how do syntactic categories change over time This study of two closely related languages reveals distinct developments occurring in parallel and provides a crucial test case for theories of language change

Current Issues in Romance Languages Teresa Satterfield, Christina Tortora, Diana Cresti, 2002-05-31 This book presents an enlightening collection of papers contributing to theoretical discussions across many topics within the study of Romance Languages and Linguistics The work originates from the 29th Linguistic Symposium on Romance Languages held in 1999 at the University of Michigan Ann Arbor although only a small subpart of the proceedings papers are included in this volume The selected papers have been reworked for the current publication
