Making Room At The Table An Invitation To Multicultural Worship:

Making Room at the Table Brian K. Blount, Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 2000-01-01 The church is not exempt from cultural divisions and battle lines are drawn today over issues related to culture and worship This collection of articles by faculty members at Princeton explore the multicultural challenges facing the contemporary church about worship and include discussions of cultural perspectives liturgical elements youth and worship and theological fidelity amidst differing cultural traditions

Worship and Culture Glauca Vasconcelos Wilkey, 2014-12-29 How are we to proclaim Christ in different cultures This question was central to a landmark study on worship and culture conducted by the Lutheran World Federation between 1992 and 1999 Much has changed in the years since then the world today more than ever is a multicultural global village Worship and Culture revisits that LWF study and publication shedding new light on the question from recent theological and sociological scholarship to expand and enrich the texts in the original three volume work This book includes texts from the main statements that came out of the original project as well as updated essays from some of the original contributors It also adds new essays prayers and hymns to the conversation inviting readers to consider what the life of the church should look like in today s hybrid multicultural world Contributors Julio Cezar Adam Scott Anderson Mark P Bangert Thomas F Best Stephen Burns Anscar J Chupungco OSB Joseph A Donnell II Norman A Hjelm Margaret Mary Kelleher OSU Dirk G Lange Gordon W Lathrop Anita Monro Martha Moore Keish Melinda A Quivik Gail Ramshaw S Anita Stauffer Benjamin M Stewart Glauca Vasconcelos Wilkey Joyce Ann Zimmerman CPPS United by Faith Curtiss Paul DeYoung, Michael O. Emerson, George A. Yancey, 2004 Presents an argument for multiracial Christian congregations in breaking down racial barriers in the United States

One Body, One Spirit George Yancey, 2009-09-20 When the church began an amazing diversity of people from different geographic cultural and linguistic backgrounds gathered together to confess a common faith in Jesus Christ The apostle Paul cast a vision of one body where Jew and Gentile would worship together in unity The Revelation to John likewise foreshadows an eternal future where all nations will join together at the throne of the Lamb Sadly Christianity has not often lived up to this ideal The history of the church has been marked by continued segregation ethnic strife and racial division But at the dawn of a new millennium hopeful signs of change are emerging As society diversifies local churches find themselves interacting with people from every tribe and tongue But not every church is equipped to handle the realities of ethnic and racial diversity in their congregational life Sociologist George Yancey s groundbreaking research on multiracial churches offers key principles for church leaders who want to minister to people from a variety of racial and cultural backgrounds Insights from real life congregations provide concrete examples of how churches can welcome those who have been marginalized giving people of all heritages a sense of ownership and partnership in the life of the church Based on data from a landmark Lilly Endowment study of multiracial churches across America this volume offers insights and implications for church leadership worship styles conflict resolution and much more

Here is an essential resource for pastors and church leaders committed to cultural ethnic and racial reconciliation in their congregations

Then the Whisper Put On Flesh Prof. Brian K. Blount, 2001-11-01 Devastating circumstances still enslave most African Americans in American society today especially in urban environments They struggle with economic devastation family disintegration black on black crime unemployment political and social injustice as well as the structural racism that fuels all of these In the midst of this horrible din there is a whisper from the Lord a faith statement upon which there can be established an ethic of transformation for an oppressed African American Christian community The whispers of faith hope and ethical direction that flow out of the New Testament materials have always taken their fleshly shape in light of the context in which African Americans have found themselves Blount studies selected New Testament texts and evaluates them in light of their first century contexts primarily from a socio linguistic perspective and then reads them through the eyes of the contemporary African American Christian This study analyzes the differences between the first century context which prompted the biblical writers to reflect ethically upon their faith statements as they did and the present reality of African Americans in the United States which motivates their Christian leaders to reflect upon these same statements in such radically different ways An example of a twentieth century ethical situation is Martin Luther King Jr s campaign of civil disobedience which appeared to be in direct contradiction to the ethical prescriptions in Romans 11:3 and 1 Peter 2:13-17 which mandate unqualified Christian obedience of government Blount urges African American Christians to continually reevaluate the ethical principles established for first century biblical communities in light of the novel circumstances that prevail today In so doing African Americans will be giving flesh to the inspirational whisper of the New Testament

The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation Cleophus J. LaRue, Luiz C. Nascimento, 2020-08-03 Christianity is turning brown and moving south The Christianity the West has known is in recession and has all but dwindled out of recognition in the opening years of the twenty first century Well over half of the world s Christians now live in the Global South Africa Asia and Latin America They are according to Aberdeen missiologist Andrew Walls the new Representative Christians What they think about Christianity will matter more and more and what North America thinks about Christianity will matter less and less This massive shift in geography and theological point of departure will have a major impact on Christian preaching now and into the future The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation seeks to begin the conversation about how preaching in the Global South will inform the whole of Christian preaching in the coming years
