Making Sense Of Adult Learning:

Making Sense of Adult Learning Dorothy MacKeracher,2004-01-01 Not just for students in adult education Making Sense of Adult Learning is for anyone working with adults in a variety of settings business industry organizations colleges universities and training projects Learning is at the heart of human experience and this guide provides essential keys to understanding how adults learn and to applying that knowledge to practical everyday situations Book jacket Making Sense of Adult Learning Dorothy MacKeracher,2004-11-01 Learning is an inseparable part of human experience Understanding how adults learn and applying that expertise to practical everyday situations and relationships opens the window on a broader understanding of the capacity of the human mind Dorothy MacKeracher's Making Sense of Adult Learning was first published in 1996 and was acclaimed for its readability and value as a reference tool For the second edition of this essential work MacKeracher has reorganized and revised many of the chapters to bring the text up to date for contemporary use Concepts are presented from learning centred and learner centred perspectives while related learning and teaching principles provide ideas about how one may enable others to learn more effectively Written for people preparing to become adult educators Making Sense of Adult Learning provides background information about the nature of adult learning and the characteristics that typify adult learners This new edition will be quick to assert its place as the premier guide in the field Making Sense of Coaching Angelique Du Toit,2014-01-08 In her latest book Ang lique du Toit goes beyond the techniques and goals explored in most coaching texts to examine the process of coaching and the importance of sense making for creating meaning and encouraging self reflection In doing this the coaching experience emerges as a type of transformational learning in which the individual is guided through a journey of discovery and revelation Theories are drawn together in a fresh and original way which will cause readers to question how coaching should be defined and practised Dr Ang lique du Toit is an academic practitioner and is involved in the delivery of academic programmes and publications related to coaching She is also an Executive Coach supporting senior executives in their personal development in both the public and private sectors Leading Adult Learning Eleanor Drago-Severson,2009-09-23 Support the growth and development of all adults teachers principals and superintendents in your school community Educators need different kinds of supports and challenges over the different stages of their lives Drago Severson's developmental model of learning oriented school leadership draws from multiple knowledge domains to help school and district leaders understand how to support professional growth This volume Details four Pillar Practices for growth teaming providing leadership roles collegial inquiry and mentoring Presents research from practicing leaders across the nation Includes resources to assist you in applying this learning oriented model to your school and school system Understanding the Adult Learner Alisa Belzer,Brian Dashew,2023-07-03 Adults seek out learning for very different reasons in different contexts and this book is intended to support adult educators development in responding to this rich array There is no single way to be an adult learner and so it should not be surprising that there is no single way to be an adult educator. However, the authors believe that all educators must demonstrate a commitment to meeting adult learners where they are. Adult educators should help learners move forward not only with new content, knowledge, information, and skills but also with new ways of making meaning and seeing themselves, their role, and the world. This volume introduces many theories and concepts that can help adult educators do this effectively.

Review of Adult Learning and Literacy, Volume 4 John Comings, Barbara Garner, Cristine Smith, 2004-07-13

The Review of Adult Learning and Literacy: Connecting Research, Policy, and Practice, Volume 4 is the newest addition to a series of annual publications of the National Center for the Study of Adult Learning and Literacy (NCSALL) that address major issues, the latest research, and the best practices in the field of adult literacy and learning. Volume 4 opens with an overview of significant recent developments in the field. Subsequent chapters cover a wide range of topics critical to the success of adult education and literacy services in the United States: issues of race, class, gender, and sexual orientation; the role of workplace education in building adults' basic skills; the role of new learning technologies in adult education and literacy; adult developmental theories and their implications for the teaching of adult basic education and English for speakers of other languages; and traditional and contemporary adult learning theories, including an annotated bibliography of key resources. Intended for policymakers, scholars, and practitioners dedicated to improving the quality of adult basic education, adult English for speakers of other languages, and adult secondary education programs, Review of Adult Learning and Literacy, Volume 4 is an essential resource for the field.
