The Making of Samuel Beckett's Dirk van Hulle, Pim Verhulst, 2017 This volume analyses the genesis of Beckett's novel Malone meurt Malone dies Written in French in 1947-1948 and translated into English by the author in 1954-1956 it is the second part of the so-called Trilogy preceded by Molloy and followed by L'Innommable The Unnamable Because Malone's account approximates a diary this book starts from H. Porter Abbott's notion of diary fiction to examine the surviving manuscripts typescripts and pre-book publication extracts Even though the writing process of Malone meurt almost coincides with the progression of the narrative illustrating what Louis Hay has called criture processus Beckett made substantial changes to the text which can be interpreted as a critique of Honoré de Balzac's programmatic writing method This analysis extends to the genesis of Malone Dies Beckett's English translation of the novel which alludes to Balzac's novel Louis Lambert in order to show that self-translation is a crucial and integral part of Beckett's bilingual autographic project Back cover *Malone Meurt. Repetition, Difference, and Knowledge in the Work of Samuel Beckett, Jacques Derrida, and Gilles Deleuze Sarah Gendron, 2008 Repetition Difference and Knowledge dialogues with novels theatre philosophy and literary theory in order to explore how three thinkers Samuel Beckett Jacques Derrida and Gilles Deleuze employ repetition as a means with which to radically unsettle some of the most fundamental notions of the human experience among them time presence originality and being Due to its interdisciplinary scope and its focus on repetition as an epistemological concept this book will attract a broad audience of academic specialists across the humanities from the fields of literary criticism philosophy French studies and poststructural studies Its simplicity of style deliberate avoidance of complex jargon and clarity of argument particularly when dealing with complicated theoretical ideas and texts also makes it an invaluable tool for use in both graduate and undergraduate level literature and philosophy courses Repetition Difference and Knowledge provides experienced and beginning scholars alike with greater insight into the works of Beckett Derrida and Deleuze and into the role that repetition has played and continues to play in determining how we read our world and come to meaning

The Distance of Irish Modernism John Greaney, 2022-06-16 The Distance of Irish Modernism interrogates the paradox through which Irish modernist fictions have become containers for national and transnational histories while such texts are often oblique and perverse in terms of their times and geographies John Greaney explores this paradox to launch a metacritical study of the modes of inquiry used to define Irish modernism in the 21st century Focused on works by Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bowen John McGahern Flann O'Brien and Kate O'Brien this book analyses how and if the complex representational strategies of modernist fictions provide a window on historical events and realities Greaney deploys close reading formal analysis narratology and philosophical accounts of literature alongside historicist and materialist approaches as well as postcolonial and world literature paradigms to examine how modernist texts engage the cultural memories they supposedly transmit Emphasizing the proximities and the distances between modernist aesthetic practice and the history of modernity in Ireland and beyond this book enables a new model for narrating Irish modernism

Writing the Mind Simon Kemp, 2017-09-25 My thought is me that is why I cannot stop I exist because I think and I can't stop myself from thinking Jean Paul Sartre Nausea Writing the Mind Representing Consciousness from Proust to Darrieussecq explores the works of seven ground breaking thinkers and novelists of recent history to compare and contrast the varying representations of the conscious and the unconscious mind Grounding his study in the writings of philosophers like Jean Paul Sartre and Marcel Proust Simon Kemp explores the non literary influences of science faith and philosophy as presented in their works demonstrates how writers learn from and sometimes deviate from preceding generations and how they agree or disagree with their peers Kemp's elegant study also charts the rise and wane of Freudian influence on literature through the twentieth century and the emergence of cognitive and neo Darwinian ideas at the dawn of the twenty first In the work of these seven writers we discover radically different understandings of how consciousness and the unconscious mind are constituted which are the most salient characteristics of mental life and even what it is that defines a mind at all
