Negro Post War World A Primer:

The Negro and the Post-War World Rayford Whittingham Logan, 2013-08 The Negro in the Post-war World Rayford Whittingham Logan (historien.), 1945 The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America The Afro-American and the Second World War Neil A. Wynn, 1993 The definitive account of black Americans in World War II and its aftermath The Afro American and the Second World War has been expanded to include the wartime experience of black women how demographic change reshaped the South and other issues In addition to providing a close look at the African American experience in the armed forces the author discusses the widespread wartime discrimination at glaring odds with American claims to social equality and democracy the resulting war on two fronts in which black newspapers literature and songs reiterated the demand for equal citizenship rights the psychological impact of the war and the protest campaigns launched by blacks during these years BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Chicago Black Renaissance and Women's Activism Anne Meis Knupfer, 2023-02-13 Following on the heels of the Harlem Renaissance the Chicago Renaissance was a resonant flourishing of African American arts literature theater music and intellectualism from 1930 to 1955 Anne Meis Knupfer s The Chicago Black Renaissance and Women s Activism demonstrates the complexity of black women s many vital contributions to this unique cultural flowering The book examines various groups of black female activists including writers and actresses social workers artists school teachers and women s club members to document the impact of social class gender nativity educational attainment and professional affiliations on their activism Together these women worked to sponsor black history and literature to protest overcrowded schools and to act as a force for improved South Side housing and employment opportunities Knupfer also reveals the crucial role these women played in founding and sustaining black cultural institutions such as the first African American art museum in the country the first African American library in Chicago and various African American literary journals and newspapers As a point of contrast Knupfer also examines the overlooked activism of working class and poor women in the Ida B Wells and Altgeld Gardens housing projects From Slavery To Freedom-A History of American Negroes John Hope Franklin, 1947 The Postwar African American Novel Stephanie Brown, 2011-03-14 Americans in the World War II era bought the novels of African American writers in unprecedented numbers But the names on the books lining shelves and filling barracks trunks were not the now familiar Richard Wright and Ralph Ellison but Frank Yerby Chester Himes William Gardner Smith and J Saunders Redding In this book Stephanie Brown recovers the work of these innovative novelists overturning conventional wisdom about the writers of the period and the trajectory of African American literary history She also questions the assumptions about the relations between race and genre that have obscured the importance of these once influential creators Wright's Native Son 1940 is typically considered to have inaugurated an era of social realism in African American literature And Ellison's Invisible Man 1952 has been cast as both a high mark of American modernism and the only worthy stopover on the way to the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s But readers in the late 1940s purchased enough copies of Yerby's historical romances to make him the best selling African American author of all time Critics meanwhile were taking note of the generic experiments of Redding Himes and Smith while the authors themselves questioned the obligation of black authors to write protest instead penning campus novels war novels and in Yerby's case costume dramas Their status as lesser lights is the product of retrospective bias Brown demonstrates and their novels established the period immediately following World War II as a pivotal moment in the history of the African American novel
