These studies examine the ways in which succeeding democratic regimes have dealt with or have ignored and in several cases sugar coated an authoritarian or totalitarian past from 1943 to the present They treat the relationship with democratization and the different ways in which collective memory is formed and dealt with or ignored and suppressed Previous books have examined only restricted sets of countries such as western or eastern Europe or Latin America The present volume treats a broader range of cases than any preceding account and also a much broader time span investigating diverse historical and cultural contexts and the role of national identity and nationalism studying the aftermath of both fascist and communist regimes in both Europe and Asia in an interdisciplinary framework while the conclusion provides a more complete comparative perspective than will be found in any other work The book will be of interest to historians and political scientists and to those interested in fascism communism legacies of war democratization collective memory and transitional justice This book was previously published as a special issue of Totalitarian Movements and Political Religions The Impact of War Experiences in Europe Nina Janz, Denis Scuto, 2024-12-30 During World War II over half a million men and women under Nazi occupation who lacked German citizenship were forcibly conscripted into the German Reichsarbeitsdienst and the Wehrmacht The Nazis sought to legitimize this conscription by labeling these individuals as deutsche Volkszugehörige or Deutschstämmige despite it being a clear violation of international law This collection explores the lives of these non-German conscripts focusing on individuals from Slovenia Poland Silesia Luxembourg Belgium and France Each chapter adopts an actor centered approach examining their daily lives social dynamics recruitment military deployment and experiences in German uniform under coercion The authors cover cases of desertion and escapes to neutral countries along with the repercussions for families tracing the capture of conscripts as POWs and the complex processes of redeployment by the Allies against the Germans and the re-conscription by national governments Through a rich collection of ego documents and personal records this work vividly captures their complex realities offering nuanced insights into the dynamics of occupation coercion and the shifting allegiances that defined wartime and post war Europe The Jesuit Relations and Allied Documents Jesuits, 1900 Establishment of Jesuit missions Abenaki Quebec Montreal Huron Iroquois Ottawa and Louisiana The Jesuit Relations and Allied Documents: Lower Canada, Illinois, Ottawas: 1673-1677 Jesuits, 1900

Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
