Anti-Book Nicholas Thoburn, 2016-12-15 No Anti Book is not a book about books Not exactly And yet it is a must for anyone interested in the future of the book Presenting what he terms a communism of textual matter Nicholas Thoburn explores the encounter between political thought and experimental writing and publishing shifting the politics of text from an exclusive concern with content and meaning to the media forms and social relations by which text is produced and consumed Taking a post digital approach in considering a wide array of textual media forms Thoburn invites us to challenge the commodity form of books to stop imagining books as transcendent intellectual moral and aesthetic goods unsullied by commerce His critique is instead one immersed in the many materialities of text Anti Book engages with an array of writing and publishing projects including Antonin Artaud's paper gris gris Valerie Solanas's SCUM Manifesto Guy Debord's sandpaper bound Mmoires the collective novelist Wu Ming and the digital print hybrid of Mute magazine Empirically grounded it is also a major achievement in expressing a political philosophy of writing and publishing where the materiality of text is interlaced with conceptual production Each chapter investigates a different form of textual media in concert with a particular concept the small press pamphlet as communist object the magazine as diagrammatic publishing political books in the modes of root and rhizome the multiple single of anonymous authorship and myth as unidentified narrative object An absorbingly written contribution to contemporary media theory in all its manifestations Anti Book will enrich current debates about radical publishing artists books and other new genre and media forms in alternative media art publishing media studies cultural studies critical theory and social and political theory

Against Value in the Arts and Education Sam Ladkin, Robert McKay, Emile Bojesen, 2016-05-18 Against Value in the Arts and Education proposes that it is often the staunchest defenders of art who do it the most harm by suppressing or mollifying its dissenting voice by neutralizing its painful truths and by instrumentalizing its ambivalence The result is that rather than expanding the autonomy of thought and feeling of the artist and the audience art's defenders make art self satisfied or otherwise an echo chamber for the limited and limiting self description of people's lives lived in an audit culture a culture pervaded by the direct and indirect excrescence of practices of accountability This book diagnoses the counter intuitive effects of the rhetoric of value It posits that the auditing of values pervades the fabric of people's work lives their education and increasingly their everyday experience The book uncovers figures of resentment disenchantment and alienation fostered by the dogma of value It argues instead that value judgments can behave insidiously and incorporate aesthetic ethical or ideological values fundamentally opposed to the value they purportedly name and describe The collection contains contributions from leading scholars in the UK and US with contributions from anthropology the history of art literature education musicology political science and philosophy

Composing Dissent Robert Adlington,2013-09-12 The 1960s saw the emergence in the Netherlands of a generation of avant garde musicians with a pronounced commitment to social and political engagement This book presents the Dutch experience as an exemplary case study in the complex and conflictual encounter of the musical avant garde with the decade s currents of social change
