Operation East Timor John A. B. Crawford, Glyn Harper, 2001 Partnership Peace Operations Hideaki Shinoda, 2024-04-09 Partnership is a key concept in contemporary international peace operations There is no universal model of peace operations in contemporary international society Ad hoc arrangements of partnership between the United Nations and various regional organizations are consequences of the complex circumstances of international security. The ways in which partnerships are organised differently in different regions reflect each region's distinctive security situation. The universal nature of liberal peacebuilding is thus maintained only by ad hoc arrangements. All the UN peacekeeping operations in Africa have some partnership linkages with regional or sub-regional organizations ranging from the African Union AU and regional mechanisms to the European Union EU. What are the conditions and characteristics that enable or lead to partnership peacekeeping in Africa? How should we understand lower levels of partnership peacekeeping in other regions? By highlighting key characteristics of partnership peacekeeping, the book explores these issues and argues that partnership is a reflection of political circumstances. The book provides an unexplored but critical perspective to understand the contemporary world for those who study International Relations, Security Studies, International Organizations and Peace Studies.

Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2014-12-17. This massive four-volume work provides students with a close examination of 10 modern genocides enhanced by documents and introductions that provide additional historical and contemporary context for learning about and understanding these tragic events. Modern Genocide: The Definitive Resource and Document Collection spans nearly 1,700 pages presented in four volumes and includes more than 120 primary source documents making it ideal for high school and beginning college students studying modern genocide as part of a larger world history curriculum. The coverage for each modern genocide from Herero to Darfur begins with an introductory essay that helps students conceptualize the conflict within an international context and enables them to better understand the complex role genocide has played in the modern world. There are hundreds of entries on atrocities, organizations, individuals, and other aspects of genocide, each written to serve as a springboard to meaningful discussion and further research. The coverage of each genocide includes an introductory overview, an explanation of the causes, consequences, perpetrators, victims, and bystanders, the international reaction, a timeline of events, an Analyze section that poses tough questions for readers to consider, and provides scholarly pro and con responses to these historical conundrums and reference entries. This integrated examination of genocides occurring in the modern era not only presents an unprecedented research tool on the subject but also challenges the readers to go back and examine other events historically and consequently consider important questions about human society in the present and the future.

Transitional Justice in Peacebuilding Djeyhoun Ostowar, 2020-11-22. This book explores the role of actors in determining transitional justice in peacebuilding contexts. In recent decades, transitional justice mechanisms and processes have been introduced to a variety of settings, becoming widely regarded as essential elements in the peacebuilding toolbox. While it has increasingly been suggested that transitional justice is imposed by neo-imperial actors with little regard for the needs and cultures of local populations evidence suggests that dismissing these policies as neo imperial or neo liberal impositions would result in grossly overlooking their dynamics which involve a whole range of relevant actors operating at multiple levels This book interrogates this theme through empirical analysis of three sites of peacebuilding that have seen extensive international involvement Kosovo East Timor and Afghanistan It proposes a novel framework for analysing and approaching transitional justice in peacebuilding that disaggregates three broad sets of actors operating at different levels in relevant processes external actors international and regional levels transitional justice promoters local national international and transnational levels and transitional regimes national and local levels The book argues that transitional justice in peacebuilding must be conceived of as actor contingent and malleable due to the significance of agency and inter actions of key categories of actors throughout peacebuilding transition This book will be of interest to students and practitioners of transitional justice peacebuilding law and International Relations East Timor in Transition, 1998-2000 ,2001 Annexes contain Australian Government documents August 1998 4 September 1999 and United Nations documents 5 May 25 October 1999 A Critical View of Western Journalism and Scholarship on East Timor Geoffrey C. Gunn,1994 Bangladesh Army in Overseas Operations ,2017 Bangladesh Army in United Nations peacekeeping forces East Timor James Dunn,2003 With expert analysis and clarity of writing James Dunn highlights the disturbing gap between the noble rhetoric and the heartless reality of international commitment and resolve East Timor A Rough Passage to Independence is a story of political intrigue and the hidden world of international diplomatic deals It is also the story of countless individuals governments and international bodies who ultimately pulled together to change the luck of this tiny island From the days of colonial Portuguese rule through the tumultuous years of the Indonesian invasion to the present day this book is a disturbing portrayal of the complete failure of the international community to deal with the East Timor situation Peacekeeping Operations in East Timor David Scott Coffey,2001 Masters of Terror ,2002 East Timor at the Crossroads P.
