Maps for Lost Lovers Nadeem Aslam, 2007-12-18 WINNER OF THE KIRIYAMA PRIZE If Gabriel Garcia Marquez had chosen to write about Pakistani immigrants in England he might have produced a novel as beautiful and devastating as Maps for Lost Lovers Jugnu and Chanda have disappeared Like thousands of people all over England they were lovers and living together out of wedlock To Chanda's family however the disgrace was unforgivable Perhaps enough so as to warrant murder As he explores the disappearance and its aftermath through the eyes of Jugnu's worldly older brother Shamas and his devout wife Kaukab Nadeem Aslam creates a closely observed and affecting portrait of people whose traditions threaten to bury them alive The result is a tour de force intimate affecting tragic and suspenseful

Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature Dave Gunning, 2010-01-01 Drawing on a selection of works from such prominent authors as Monica Ali Hanif Kureishi and Zadie Smith Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Writing offers the first extended exploration of the cultural impact of race and antiracism in Britain through the lens of black British and British Asian literature With antiracism the politics of opposing discrimination increasingly determining racial categorizations and identities this study traces its influence over the last two decades on individual identities and the wider political debate including the changing attitudes toward Muslim culture in Britain and the role of Africa as a symbolic focus for black political culture This volume will be of interest to anyone seeking a better understanding of the nuances of antiracism in Britain

Narratives of Disparity Rida Inam, 2018 Islam and the West are often identified as two distinct civilizations with conflicting characteristics Assuming that a clash between Islam and the West is not inevitable this study demonstrates that the divide is fabricated on both sides by Narratives of Disparity NoDs which are often built on historical narratives The interplay of history and fiction in NoDs is exhibited on four novels published in Britain after 9/11 covering the most frequently used tropes the postcolonial experience counterterrorism eurocentrism traditionalism honour killings and sexual autonomy Metaphor and Diaspora in Contemporary Writing J. Sell, 2012-01-06 Choose ten major contemporary diasporic writers from Abdulrazak to Zadie ask ten leading authorities to write about their use of metaphor and this is the result a timely reassertion of metaphor's unrivalled capacity to encompass sameness and difference and create understanding and empathy across boundaries of nationality race and ethnicity Making Time Carolin Gebauer, 2021-04-19 2023 Perkins Prize of the International Society for the Study of Narrative ESSE Book Award for Junior Scholars for a book in the field of Literatures in the English Language Responding to the current surge in present tense novels Making Time is an innovative contribution to narratological research on present tense usage in narrative fiction Breaking with the tradition of conceptualizing the present tense purely as a deictic category denoting synchronicity between a narrative event and its presentation the study redefines present tense narration as a fully fledged narrative strategy whose functional potential far exceeds temporal relations between story and discourse The first part of the volume presents numerous analytical categories that systematically describe the formal structural functional and syntactic dimensions of present tense usage in narrative fiction These categories are then deployed to investigate the uses and functions of present tense narration in selected twenty first century novels including Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall Margaret Atwood's Oryx and Crake Ian McEwan's Nutshell and Irvine Welsh's Skagboys The seven case studies serve to illustrate the ubiquity of present tense narration in contemporary fiction ranging from the historical novel to the thriller and to investigate the various ways in which the present tense contributes to narrative worldmaking The Transformative Power of Literature and Narrative: Promoting Positive Change Corinna Assmann, Jan Rupp, Christine Schwanecke, 2023-01-16 Narrative plays a central role for individual and collective lives this insight has arguably only grown at a time of multiple social and cultural challenges in the 21st century The present volume aims to actualize and further substantiate the case for literature and narrative taking inspiration from Vera Nning's eminent scholarship over the past decades Engaging with her formative interdisciplinary work the volume seeks to explore potentials of change through the transformative power of literature and narrative to be harnessed by individuals and groups as agents of positive change in today's world The book is located at the intersection of cognitive and cultural narratology and is concerned with the way literature affects individuals how it works at an intersubjective level enabling communication and community and how it furthers social and cultural change Doing Family in Second-Generation British Migration Literature Corinna Assmann, 2018-09-24 Due to the large scale global transformations of the 20th century migration literature has become a vibrant genre over the last decades In these novels issues of transcultural identity and belonging naturally feature prominently This study takes a closer look at the ways in which the idea of family informs processes of identity construction It explores changing roles and meanings of the diasporic family as well as intergenerational family relations in a migration setting in order to identify the specific challenges problems and possibilities that arise in this context This book builds on insights from different fields of family research e.g sociology psychology communication studies memory studies to provide a conceptual framework for the investigation of synchronic and diachronic family constellations and connections The approach developed in this study not only sheds new light on contemporary British migration literature but can also prove fruitful for analyses of families in literature more generally By highlighting the relevance and multifaceted nature of doing family this study also offers new perspectives for transcultural memory studies

Legend of a Suicide David Vann,2010-03-16 The reportorial relentlessness of David Vann s imagination often makes his fiction seem less written than chiseled A small lovely book has been written out of his large and evident pain New York Times Book Review In Legend of a Suicide his heartbreaking semi autobiographical debut story collection David Vann relates the story of a young man trying to come to terms with the guilt and pain of his father s suicide The wild outback of the author s native Alaska acts as the ideal backdrop for this collage of six stories a novella and five shorts and mirrors the author s own psychological wilderness From an important new voice in American literature Robert Olen Butler Pulitzer Prize winning author of A Good Scent from a Strange Mountain comes an unforgettable exploration of the tragic gaps between one boy and his father The Herald ,2004-07

The Muslim quest between integration and provocation in contemporary Canadian writing. A close analysis of Rawi Hage's "Cockroach" Matthias Dickert,2017-03-16 Document from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works Comenius University in Bratislava language English abstract This essay is about Rawi Hage s novel Cockroach which at first sight is according to the Daily Telegraph A tale of murder intrigue and sex from the exuberantly talented Hage However Cockroach embodies more than this negative one sighted approach It is also a novel of migration exile diaspora and being unwanted because of being a foreigner of migrant background and Hage like Rushdie explores the hinterland between fantasy trauma and realism The unnamed narrator of the novel takes the reader by the hand and exposes this immigrant life in a chilly surrounding Chilly because people are cold and chilly because the climate is cold too The fact that Hage as a Lebanese born person uses a Canadian setting as the place of action already hints at two conditions of contemporary Muslim writing in general This refers to the autobiographical basis which many novels have and the use of the city as the background of the narration two presuppositions of Muslim writing since Rushdie and Kureishi Hage in Cockroach explores Montreal and presents it as an alien and hostile topography of menial jobs hidden or open xenophobia a mix of foreigners insect behaviours and class hostilities This narrator an exotic foreigner himself despises the world around him and takes the reader through a nightmare of Canadian reality on the basis of his violent childhood the death of his sister his exile situation and the helplessness of Canada which fails in the person of a court mandated psychiatrist His traumatic past and his inability as a man to protect the female members of his family are also symbols for a failed integration and the personal crisis of the narrator who seeks to find identity and a life at the border of physical and psychological death Female Pakistani Fiction. A Critical

University in Bratislava language English abstract This book is an introduction into female Pakistani Fiction It starts with some sort of background information on the catchphrase Pakistani Fiction in order to place the female aspect into its literary background A second step lies in a description of the position of this literary concept within Postcolonial Writing which is marked and shaped by so many different cultural and religious elements The short analysis of two selected novels Ice Candy Man 1991 by Bapsi Sidhwa and Brick Lane 2003 by Monica Ali should help to show how female Pakistani writers deal with female matters This literary reflection will be supported by three parameters which can be found in many novels dealing with this subject The talk is about gender diaspora and globalization all of which are used to portray female characters The end will consist of some sort of outlook where Pakistani Fiction stands at the moment and where its trends might go to
