Round Buildings, Square Buildings & Buildings That Wiggle Like a Fish, Round Buildings, Square Buildings, Buildings That Wiggle Like a Fish Philip M. Isaacson, 2005-04 What do we see when we look at a building Isaacson answers this deceptively simple question when he takes us on a personal tour of buildings around the world from the classical Parthenon in Greece to the simple fishermen's shacks in New England to the post modernist Pompidou Center in France Along the way he discusses the many elements that give buildings their flavor and character incl materials form color ornamentation placement in the landscape and the way that light strikes them When this book was first pub in 88 critics hailed it as the book to introduce all ages to architecture Now repub in this handsome hardcover edition the book re invites us to look at buildings as we have never before and to savor what we see Color photos Juv aud Round Buildings, Square Buildings, and Buildings That Wiggle Like a Fish Philip M. Isaacson, 1990-07-21 Explores various architectural styles around the world depicting churches fortresses bridges air terminals mills cliff dwellings tombs and lighthouses of particular note Ancient Building Technology, Volume 3: Construction (2 Vols) G.R.H. Wright, 2009-11-23 Building construction is the subject of this third part of the Ancient Building Technology set dealing with the history of building and building materials Beginning with the formulation of a project it goes on to discuss preliminary site surveying and setting out followed by building site development and its attendant installations and then examines the disposition of the various building materials in building construction from pre history to the end of antiquity Chinese Architectural History Zhi Dao, The book provides highlights on the key concepts and trends of evolution in Chinese Architectural History as one of the series of books of China Classified Histories Ancient Building in Cyprus G.R.H. Wright, 2022-11-07 The wealth of excavation in Cyprus conducted across a period of nearly a century and a half has revealed much evidence of ancient building of all functional categories Whereas the earlier excavation concerned mainly funerary and religious contexts more recent work has endeavoured to clarify the whole range of building in Cyprus This picture extends over a vast range of time ca 10 000 years since Cyprus is probably the place where the earliest substantial building known the Neolithic round house style is better presented than anywhere else in the world Certainly it was immeasurably longer lived in Cyprus than in any other region of the ancient world This longevity of tradition became a proverbial aspect of the Cypriote character It is the aim of this book to set forth and document this building tradition which hitherto has received no detailed exposition After preliminary geographical and historical introductions the ancient building of Cyprus has been surveyed and analysed from the following view points its historical development its design its construction and its foreign connections Because of the extensive and detailed coverage every effort has been made to facilitate the use of the book equally as a treatise and as a work of instant reference e g by way of introductory pr cis list of general references running titles to pages and marginal rubrics The book is also virtually a double treatment of the subject since a separate volume contains specially drawn illustrations arranged with captions on the facing pages which themselves constitute an incisive coverage of the subject matter The book will fill several gaps in the library shelves at one and the same time architectural history that presents all the archaeological evidence The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004095472 Göytepe: Neolithic Excavations in the Middle Kura Valley, Azerbaijan Yoshihiro Nishiaki, Farhad Guliyev, 2021-02-11 This volume publishes the first round of fieldwork and research 2008 2013 at G ytepe a key site for understanding the emergence and development of food producing communities in the South Caucasus Results include findings relating to chronology architecture technology social organisation plant and animal exploitation and more The Building Estimator's Reference Book, 1915 Public Space in the Late Antique City (2 vols.) Luke Lavan, 2021-01-11 This book investigates the nature of public space in Mediterranean cities A D 284 650 meaning places where it was impossible to avoid meeting people from all parts of society whether different religious confessions or social groups The first volume considers the architectural form and everyday functions of streets fora agorai market buildings and shops including a study of processions and everyday street life The second volume analyses archaeological evidence for the construction repair use and abandonment of these urban spaces based on standardised principles of phasing and dating The conclusions provide insights into the urban environment of Constantinople an assessment of urban institutions and citizenship and a consideration of the impact of Christianity on civic life at this time
