Rubian Architecture Of The Soviet Period:

Russian Architecture of the Soviet Period Андрей Владимирович Иконников,1988 The Socialist Life of Modern Architecture Juliana Maxim,2018-12-07 The Socialist Life of Modern Architecture is the first systematic architectural history of Romania under socialism written in English It examines the mechanisms through which modern architecture was invested with political meaning and in reverse how specific architectural solutions came to define the socialist experience Each of the book s three parts traces the historical development of one key aspect of Romania s architectural culture between the years 1949 1964 the planning and construction of housing districts in Bucharest the role of typification of design and standardization of construction in a project of cultural transformation the production and management of a folk architectural tradition Going beyond buildings and architects to consider the use of photography painting and novels as well as narrations of history and the formation of an ethnographic architectural heritage the author explores how buildings came to participate in the cultural imagination of socialism and became in fact a privileged medium of socialism Part of the growing interest in the significance of Soviet Bloc architecture this is an important contribution to the fields of architectural history cultural history and visual culture Russian Architecture of the Soviet Period Andreï Vladimirovich Ikonnikov,1988-09-01 Guide to the Literature of Art History 2 Max Marmor,Alex Ross,2005 This bibliography supplements the greatest of modern art bibliographies Etta Arntzen and Robert Rainwater s Guide to the literature of art history ALA 1980 Preface Re-Humanizing Architecture Ákos Moravánszky,Judith Hopfengärtner,2016-12-19 After the Second World War a divided Europe was much affected by a period of reconstruction This was influenced by the different political systems in the socialist East and in the capitalist West the focus was on cohesion in society and its cultural and architectural expression In parallel to the rapidly progressing industrialization of the building industry debates on the humanization of the built environment were led on both sides with great intensity The volume shows how on the back of existentialism new monumentality and socialist realism quite similar concepts and strategies were developed in order to find answers to questions relating to adequate structures for new forms of community and identity Modernism's History Bernard Smith,1998-01-01 The history of twentieth century visual arts can no longer be written as a succession of avant garde movements contends eminent art historian Bernard Smith in this stimulating book He argues that a return to the concept of period style is inevitable and that modernism the dominant style of art that emerged at the end of the nineteenth century and continued through the 1960s deserves recognition as a period style Smith renames this period Formalesque since it is no longer modern and since it emphasizes the formal values of art more than any previous period does In a wide ranging reformulation of art history in the twentieth century the author defines the nature and development of Formalesque an avant garde style that arose between 1890 and the First World War was institutionalized between the world wars and flourished anew between 1945 and 1960 Identifying the Formalesque period says Smith makes it possible also to identify dialectical adversaries such true oppositional avant garde styles of the twentieth century as Dada Surrealism and the Neue Sachlichkeit These constitute the formative elements of the modernism now called postmodernism that became increasingly dominant after 1960 The author locates twentieth century artistic movements and developments in a broad cultural context and concludes with a thought provoking examination of the relation between the Formalesque and European and American cultural imperialism
