Modern Europe After Fascism Volume 2

Trond Risto Nilssen, Jon Reitan

Modern Europe After Fascism Volume 2:

Legacies of the Nazi camps in Norway : Falstad 1941-49 Trond Risto Nilssen, Jon Reitan, 2020-01-01 During World War 2 WW2 Nazi Germany established 500 camps in occupied Norway In May 1945 these camps quickly became symbols of terror and death At war s end war criminals and collaborators had to be arrested pending their trials in a time marked by revenge This book examines new perspectives on the scope and fate of the Nazi camps in Norway during WW2 One of the most symbol laden sites in Norwegian war history is in focus The SS camp Falstad in central Norway was an arena of Nazi abuses from 1941 1945 After the war it was made into a prison and played a key part in the Norwegian post war trials

Modern Europe After Fascism, 1943-1980s Stein Ugelvik Larsen, Bernt Hagtvet, 1998 This comprehensive study of the fate of fascism after World War II by fifty of the leading scholars of fascism and totalitarianism focuses on developments in Germany Austria Italy Central and Eastern Europe the neutral countries and those not occupied by Germany the western European countries occupied by German forces and Spain Portugal and Greece

Totalitarian and Authoritarian Regimes in Europe Jerzy W. Borejsza, Klaus Ziemer, Magdalena Hułas, Niemiecki instytut historyczny (Varsovie), 2006 Based on a conference organized by the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences and the German Historical Institute Warsaw held in Sept 2000

Liberal Roots of Far Right Activism Lars Erik Berntzen, 2019-10-16 This book explores the anti Islamic turn and expansion of the far right in Western Europe North America and beyond from 2001 and onwards Driven by terror attacks and other moral shocks the anti Islamic cause has undergone four waves of transnational expansion in the period since 2001 The leaders and intellectuals involved have varied backgrounds many coming from the left uniting historically opposed sets of values under their banner of a civilizational struggle against Islam The findings presented in this book indicate that anti Islamic initiatives in Western Europe and the United States form a transnational movement and subculture characterized by a fragile balance between liberal and authoritarian values The author draws on a broad array of data sources and methods including network analysis and sentiment analysis to analyze the impact of the anti Islamic expansion and turn at a macro level and the theoretical implications for our understanding of the current far right flowing from this Offering an overview of anti Islamic activism the book explores the background of their leaders and ideologues provides an in depth look at their ideology online organizational networks and the views expressed by their online members as well as which emotions and messages continue to drive their mobilization The book will be of interest to scholars in the social movement field as well as political scientists sociologists and general readers interested in issues such as populism extremism and understanding the ways in which the contemporary far right challenges liberal democracies

Dealing with the Legacy of Authoritarianism Antonio Costa Pinto, Leonardo Morlino, 2013-09-13 In recent years the agenda of how to deal with the past has become a central dimension of the quality of contemporary democracies Many years after the process of authoritarian breakdown consolidated democracies revisit the past either symbolically or to punish the elites associated with the previous authoritarian regimes New factors like international environment conditionality party cleavages memory cycles and commemorations or politics of apologies do sometimes bring the past back into the political arena This book addresses such themes by dealing with two dimensions of authoritarian legacies in Southern European democracies repressive institutions and human rights abuses The thrust of this book is that we should view transitional justice as part of a broader politics of the past an ongoing process in which elites and society under democratic rule revise the meaning of the past in terms of what they hope to achieve in the present This book was published as a special issue of South European Society and Politics

Closing the Books Jon Elster, 2004-09-06 An analysis of transitional justice retribution and reparation after a change of political regime from Athens in the fifth century BC to the present Part I The Universe of Transitional Justice describes more than thirty transitions some of them in considerable detail others more succinctly Part II The Analytics of Transitional Justice proposes a framework for explaining the variations among the cases why after some transitions wrongdoers from the previous regime are punished severely and in other cases mildly or not at all and victims sometimes compensated generously and sometimes poorly or not at all After surveying a broad range of justifications and excuses for wrongdoings and criteria for selecting and indemnifying victims the 2004 book concludes with a discussion of three general explanatory factors economic and political constraints the retributive emotions and the play of party politics

Amnesty, Serious Crimes and International Law Josepha Close, 2019-05-16 Amnesty Serious Crimes and International Law examines the permissibility of amnesties for serious crimes in the contemporary international order In the last few decades there has been a growing tendency to consider that amnesties are prohibited in respect of certain grave crimes However the question remains controversial as there is no explicit treaty ban and general amnesties continue to be frequently issued in post conflict and transitional contexts The first part of the book explores the use of amnesties from antiquity to the present day It reviews amnesty traditions in ancient societies and provides a global picture of modern amnesties In parallel it traces the development of the accountability paradigm underpinning the current prohibitive stance on amnesties The second part assesses the position of modern international law on amnesties It comprehensively analyses the main arguments supporting the existence of a general amnesty ban including the duty to prosecute international crimes the right to redress of victims of human rights violations international standards and trends in state practice and the mandate of international criminal courts The book argues that while international legal or policy requirements restrict the freedom of states to extend amnesty in respect of serious crimes or the effectiveness of amnesty measures in preventing the prosecution of such crimes these restrictions do not add up to an absolute and universal prohibition

Democratic Quality in Southern Europe Tiago Fernandes, 2024-05-15 Fueled by new data from the Varieties of Democracy project Democratic Quality in Southern Europe takes a close look at the democratic trajectories of France Greece Italy Portugal and Spain over the past fifty years Despite similar beginnings France Greece Italy Portugal and Spain have experienced significant variations in the way their democracies have evolved Covering ground from the protest movements of the late 60s and early 70s to the challenges that resulted from the financial crisis of the Great Recession editor Tiago Fernandes expertly draws together a collection of essays that look beyond the impact of socioeconomic development in these five countries exploring innovative and nuanced explanations for their diverging paths Democratic Quality in Southern Europe combines new data with classical methodologies to create fresh convincing hypotheses on the development quality and depth of democracy in this critical region Contributors Tiago Fernandes Rui Branco Jo o Cancela Edna Costa Pedro Diniz de Sousa Pedro T Magalh es Edalina Rodrigues Sanches Jos Santana Pereira Tiago Tib rcio
