The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wa l S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry

Lebanese Migrants in Australia and New Zealand ,2004 A New Generation of African Writers Brenda Cooper, 2013 Brenda Cooper examines the work of the new generation of African writers who have placed migration as central to their writing There is a growing interest in books by writers of African origin These authors have often grown up or passed their early adult years out of Africa The Orange Prize for Fiction was awarded in London 2007 to Chimamanda Ngozie Adichie s Half of a Yellow Sun and the Caine Prize for African Writing has introduced new writers such as Leila Aboulela Biyi Bandele and Chimamanda Adichie herself to agents and publishers This examination of the extraordinary work which has recently appeared is therefore very timely Migration is a central theme of much African fiction written in English Here Brenda Cooper tracks the journeys undertaken by a new generation of African writers their protagonists and the solid objects that populate their fiction to depict the material realities of their multiple worlds and languages She explores the uses to which the English language is put in order to understand these worlds and demonstrates how these writers have contested the dominance of colonising metaphors The writers challenge is to find an English that can effectively express their many lives languages and identities BRENDA COOPER was for many years Director of the Centre for
