Shadows Issues And Social Problems In Canada:

Shadows Anthony Synnott,1996      How Claims Spread Joel Best, Best s anthology examines for the first time how diverse social issues road rage the metric system gun control and abortion are among those included migrate across national boundaries modifying themselves from place to place as a result of different claims claimsmakers and policy responses This unique collection assembled from new research by an international group of social problems scholars will fill a gap in undergraduate and graduate level studies in the constructionist analyses of social problems as well as in political science public policy and criminology Claims concerning one social problem often influence those about another claimsmakers borrow rhetoric and tactics from one another In some cases experienced claimsmakers join efforts to call attention to other social problems compelling images e g the threatened child or random violence link claims about different problems and reactions to one set of claims These case studies describe very different processes ranging from deliberate attempts to disseminate social problem claims to developments that were more inadvertent from successes in which social problem constructions spread to new countries to failures in which claims were sown but failed to take root They are intended to suggest that the diffusion of social problems is neither simple nor automatic Joel Best is professor and chair Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice University of Delaware He has served as an editorial advisor for Aldine that has produced fifty titles

Re-Thinking Men Anthony Synnott,2024-05-31 Much writing on men in the field of gender studies tends to focus unduly almost exclusively on portraying men as villains and women as victims in a moral bi polar paradigm Re Thinking Men reverses the proclivity which ignores not only the positive contributions of men to society but also the male victims of life including the homeless the incarcerated the victims of homicide suicide accidents war and the draft and sexism as well as those affected by the failures of the health education political and justice systems Proceeding from a radically different perspective in seeking a more positive balanced and inclusive view of men and women this book presents three contrasting paradigms of men as heroes villains and victims Revised and updated and presenting data and studies from the United States Canada and the United Kingdom it offers a comparative and revised perspective on gender that will be of interest to scholars across a range of social sciences

Interpreting Weight Jeffery Sobal,2017-07-05 What is too fat what is too thin Interpretations of body weight vary widely across and within cultures Meeting weight expectations is a major concern for many people because failing to do so may incur dire social consequences such as difficulty in finding a romantic partner or even in locating adequate employment without these social and cultural pressures body weight would only be a health issue while socially constructed standards of body weight may seem immutable they are continuously recreated through social interactions that perpetuate or transform expectations about fatness and thinness Written by sociologists psychologists and nutritionists all of the chapters in this book focus on how people construct fatness and thinness examining different strategies used to interpret body weight such as negotiating weight identities reinterpreting weight and becoming involved in weight related organizations Together these chapters emphasize the many ways that people actively define construct and enact their fatness and thinness in a variety of settings and situations Re-Thinking Men Professor Anthony Synnott,2012-12-28 Much writing on men in the field of gender studies tends to focus unduly almost exclusively on portraying men as villains and women as victims in a moral bi polar paradigm Re Thinking Men reverses the proclivity which ignores not only the positive contributions of men to society but also the male victims of life including the homeless the incarcerated the victims of homicide suicide accidents war and the draft and sexism as well as those affected by the failures of the health education political and justice systems Proceeding from a radically different perspective in seeking a more positive balanced and inclusive view of men and women this book presents three contrasting paradigms of men as Heroes Villains and Victims With the development of a comparative and revised gender perspective drawing on US Canadian and UK sources this book will be of interest to scholars across a range of social sciences Social Problems in Canada Adie Nelson,Augie Fleras,1998 Discusses addictions sex and sexuality crime inequality and poverty gender race ethnicity and aboriginality family media work and workplaces globalization and global problems etc Explaining Crime Paul S. Maxim,Paul C. Whitehead,1998 Explaining Crime Fourth Edition retains the exceptional organization and content of the original editions with completely updated statistics and references It is ideally suited for a one semester course that serves as an introduction to criminology by dealing with three issues definition of crime measurement of crime and theories of crime Throughout the text the attitude is critical Criticism rests on three standards clarity of concepts quality of evidence and utility of theory for public policy Thoroughly revised version of a classic textbook Introductory text dealing with definition measurement and explanations of crime Society's Shadow: Studies in the Sociology of Countercultures Kenneth Westhues,1972 A theory of counterculture applied to the modern youth culture The Shadow Line Ian McDermid Gomme,1998 Canadian Books in Print ,1999 Trudeau's Shadow Andrew Cohen,J. L. Granatstein,1998 No other politician has ever had the impact on this country and its people that Pierre Elliott Trudeau did This iconoclastic anti politician emerged from nowhere in the mid 1960s and from 1968 1984 governed Canada sometimes well sometimes poorly Even after Trudeau left office he remained a player his infrequent speeches and public appearances sufficient still to alter the course of events Now in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of Trudeau s coming to power Andrew Cohen and J L Granatstein have commissioned 23 new never before published essays from a diverse group of Canadians all of whom in some way or another have been influenced by this enigmatic leader Among the esteemed essayists are Larry Zolf Max Nemni Michael Bliss Richard Gwyn Linda Griffiths Mark Kingwell Robert Mason Lee Jim Coutts Rick Salutin Andrew Coyne Linda McQuaig Bob Rae Donald Macdonald James Raffan and B W Powe As a whole this is a stunning and important collection of work from an amazing scope of people controversial hard hitting fascinating The Canadian Who's who ,1997

focuses on the global character of homelessness bringing together studies from different countries to provide the critical reflection often absent from public policy or social welfare deliberations Social Welfare ,1925 Edelman and Kudzma's Canadian Health Promotion Throughout the Life Span - E-Book Marian Luctkar-Flude,Jane Tyerman,Shannon Dames,2025-02-27 Gain the knowledge and skills you need to promote health and prevent disease in Canada Edelman and Kudzma s Canadian Health Promotion Throughout the Life Span Second Edition describes public health concepts from a Canadian perspective helping you to improve community health and reduce health inequities within a diverse population Covering the needs of each age and stage of life this book discusses care of the individual family and community all based on the latest research and trends in Canadian health promotion New chapters address the timely topics of Indigenous health and 2SLGBTQI health Written by respected Canadian educators Marian Luctkar Flude Shannon Dames and Jane Tyerman this book is the only Canadian nursing health promotion text on the market In the Shadow of Gleam Arles Carballo,1999-07 Canada's Global Engagements and Relations with India Abdul Nafey,2007 Papers presented at the International Conference on Canada s Global Engagements held at New Delhi in May 2002 Under the Shadow of Weimar Louis I. Greenspan,Cyril Levitt,1993-04-30 Written by authorities on the legal systems of France Britain Germany the United States Israel and Canada this book explores the growing confrontation between democracy and racist incitement The authors consider existing and prospective laws as they trace the efforts to enact and enforce laws that can curb racism in the early stages of its growth without violating democratic freedoms Throughout the book the authors discuss their own legal and political cultures and how the subject countries are affected by historical encounters with racism Both France and Britain have strong racist political forces and existing laws to combat them Special attention is given to Le Pen whose electoral support has been estimated nationally at more than twenty percent and to the effect Britain s new legislation has had on the country s racist movement The United States represents a case where strong constitutional guarantees against impingement upon freedom of expression have prevented the passage or juridical validation of laws restricting racist incitement Israel finds itself struggling to define a legal remedy that can be used against racist incitement by the Kahane movement Canada now seeking a legal climate that will foster multiculturalism strives to define laws against incitement that will be consistent with its newly established Charter of Freedom And Germany as it faces the enormous problems resulting from unification is forced to reflect upon its own past and the challenges that an active racist movement poses for the country s future Recommended for sociologists political scientists and criminal law specialists Canadiana ,1989
Women in Canadian Literature Marta Gudrun Hesse,1976
