

MODELS and STRATEGIES for Training Design

The background of the cover is a vibrant blue. In the center, there is a 3D perspective illustration of a rectangular grid, similar to a circuit board or a data matrix, tilted upwards. Several large, semi-transparent blue arrows are scattered across the scene, pointing in various directions, suggesting movement, flow, or design processes. Dotted white lines are also visible, forming rectangular outlines that intersect with the grid and other elements, adding to the technical and structured feel of the design.
