Chung, 2024-07-19 People love their metaphors for the Bible The Bible is a sword a mirror a script a score a cathedral a rule book a user s manual a lamp a love letter But how did metaphor which in the eighteenth century was seen as a deceptive rhetorical trick become such a prominent tool for speaking of Scripture And how does one judge between a good metaphor and a bad one This book explores the theological use of metaphor to describe the nature and interpretation of Scripture It interrogates three such models the Bible as musical score Anthony Thiselton the Bible as theo dramatic script Kevin Vanhoozer and the Bible as light John Feinberg seeking to evaluate their faithfulness to Scripture and church tradition their fittingness to the current culture and their fruitfulness for understanding and practicing the biblical text The author then proposes and explores what he considers a better model one drawn from the Bible itself namely that of Scripture as food Trinitarian Theology, West and East Paul M. Collins, 2001 CURRENTLY BEING RE WORKED BY AUTHOR This book represents a unique contribution to the dialogue between the traditions of Eastern and Western Christian thought Through the writings of Karl Barth and John Zizioulas Dr Collins seeks to set up an ecumenical dialogue concerning Trinitarian thought During the last decade the doctrine of the

Trinity and the concept of koinonia have been much in evidence in ecumenical contexts In this volume Dr Collins sets out to look behind the growing ecumenical consensus to examine where the basis for the consensus has emerged from and suggests that it is possible to root it in Western thought as well as in Eastern Orthodoxy

Christology and Cosmology J. Rebecca Lyman, 1993 This book offers a fresh interpretation of the relation between Greek thought and ancient Christian theology through an analysis of three foundational and controversial thinkers Origen Eusebius of Caesarea and Athanasius As an urban teacher civic apologist and ascetic bishop each of the three theologians offered a distinctive Christian response to the religious and ecclesiastical issues of the third and fourth centuries Each cosmology and Christology therefore reveals particular concerns about individual and social identity and salvation in the developing Christian community

Beauty Natalie Carnes, 2014-11-13 Beauty engages fourth century bishop Gregory of Nyssa to address beauty's place in theology and the broader world With the recent resurgence of attention to beauty among theologians questions still remain about what exactly beauty is how it is perceived and whether we should celebrate its return If beauty fell out of favor because it was seen to distract from the weightier concerns of poverty and suffering because it can even be a tool of oppression why should we laud it now Gregory's writings offer surprisingly rich and relevant reflections that can move contemporary conversations beyond current impasses and critiques of beauty Drawing Gregory into conversation with such disparate voices as novelist J M Coetzee and art theorist Kaja Silverman Beauty displays the importance of beauty to theology and theology to beauty in a discussion that bridges ancient and modern practical and theoretical secular and religious
