Cities of the Mediterranean Meltem Toksoz, Biray Kolluoglu, 2014-08-25 The Eastern Mediterranean is one of the world's most vibrant and vital commercial centres and for centuries the region's cities and ports have been at the heart of East West trade Taking a full and comprehensive look at the region as a whole rather than isolating individual cities or distinct cultures Cities of the Mediterranean offers a fresh and original portrait of the entire region from the 16th century to the present In this ambitious inter disciplinary study the authors examine the relationships between the Eastern Mediterranean port cities and their hinterlands as well as inland and provincial cities from many different perspectives political economic international and ecological without prioritising either Ottoman Anatolia or the Ottoman Balkans or the Arab provinces in order to think of the Eastern Mediterranean world as a coherent whole Wide ranging in scope Cities of the Mediterranean explores diverse topics weaving together history sociology geography cartography politics and economics Early chapters examine the impact of the Little Ice Age the global economy's shift from the Mediterranean to Antwerp and Amsterdam early European perceptions of the Eastern Mediterranean 19th century harbour building practices and their impact on the cities and the connections between Alexandria Izmir and Thessalonica and their vast and diverse hinterlands The book also explores political radicalism in Turkey and elsewhere as well as the illegal trade networks that linked the Balkans and Adriatic with the Mediterranean and the introduction of new technologies that led to the faster transport of people goods and information Through its penetrating analysis of the various networks that connected the ports and towns of the Mediterranean and their inhabitants throughout the Ottoman period Cities of the Mediterranean presents the region as a unified and dynamic community and paves the way for a new understanding of the subject India in Early Modern English Travel Writings

Rita Banerjee, 2021-07-15 Comparing the variant ideologies of the representations of India in seventeenth century European travelogues India in Early Modern English Travel Narratives concerns a relatively neglected area of study and often overlooked writers Relating the narratives to contemporary ideas and beliefs Rita Banerjee argues that travel writers many of them avid Protestants seek to negativize India by constructing her in opposition to Europe the supposed norm by deliberately erasing affinities and indulging in the politics of disavowal However some travelogues show a neutral stance by dispassionate ethnographic reporting indicating a growing empirical trend Yet others influenced by the Enlightenment ideas of diversity demonstrate tolerance of alien practices and occasional acceptance of the superior rationality of the other's customs
