and quality of education As one of the nation s poorest states Mississippi could not afford to finance one school system adequately much less two For much of the twentieth century whites fought hard to preserve the dual school system in which the maintenance of one race schools became the most important measure of educational quality Blacks fought equally hard to end segregated schooling realizing that their schools would remain underfunded and understaffed as long as they were not integrated Charles C Bolton is professor and chair of history and co director of the Center for Oral History and Cultural Heritage at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg He is the coauthor of Mississippi An Illustrated History and coeditor of The Confessions of Edward Isham A Poor White Life of the Old South Bolton s work has also appeared in the Journal of Southern History Journal of Mississippi History and Mississippi Folklife
