Book of Praise Church of the Pilgrims (Brooklyn, New York, N.Y.),1865 Causation in Grammatical Structures Bridget Copley,Fabienne Martin,2014-12-18 This book brings together research on the topic of causation from experts in the fields of linguistics philosophy and psychology It seeks to arrive at a more sophisticated understanding both of how causal concepts are expressed in causal meanings and how those meanings in turn are organized into structures Chapters address some of the most exciting current issues in the field including the relata of causal relations the representation of defeasible causation

within verb phrases and at the level of modality the difference between direct and indirect causal chains and the representation of these chains in syntax The book examines data from a wide variety of languages such as Tohono O odham Finnish Tagalog Vietnamese Hindi and Karachay Balkar and will be of interest to syntacticians and semanticists as well as psycholinguists and philosophers from graduate level upwards

On Not Dying Abou Farman, 2020-04-21 An ethnographic exploration of technoscientific immortality Immortality has long been considered the domain of religion But immortality projects have gained increasing legitimacy and power in the world of science and technology With recent rapid advances in biology nanotechnology and artificial intelligence secular immortalists hope for and work toward a future without death On Not Dying is an anthropological historical and philosophical exploration of immortality as a secular and scientific category Based on an ethnography of immortalist communities those who believe humans can extend their personal existence indefinitely through technological means and an examination of other institutions involved at the end of life Abou Farman argues that secular immortalism is an important site to explore the tensions inherent in secularism how to accept death but extend life knowing the future is open but your future is finite that life has meaning but the universe is meaningless As secularism denies a soul an afterlife and a cosmic purpose conflicts arise around the relationship of mind and body individual finitude and the infinity of time and the cosmos and the purpose of life Immortalism today Farman argues is shaped by these historical and culturally situated tensions Immortalist projects go beyond extending life confronting dualism and cosmic alienation by imagining and producing informatic selves separate from the biological body but connected to a cosmic unfolding On Not Dying interrogates the social implications of technoscientific immortalism and raises important political questions Whose life will be extended Will these technologies be available to all or will they reproduce racial and geopolitical hierarchies As human life on earth is threatened in the Anthropocene why should life be extended and what will that prolonged existence look like
