Anti-Roman Cryptograms in the New Testament Norman A. Beck, 2010 The first basic thesis of Anti Roman Cryptograms in the New Testament Hidden Transcripts of Hope and Liberation is that the Jesus of history and his earliest and closest followers during his lifetime and during the decades after he had been crucified by the Romans had not only a deep longing for eternal life with God beyond the limits of this world but also a strong desire for liberation from Roman political economic and social oppression The second basic thesis of Anti Roman Cryptograms in the New Testament is that within the Christian Scriptures there are more hidden transcripts coded messages anti Roman cryptograms of hope and liberation for freedom now within this life than we have realized throughout most of the history of interpretation Hidden transcripts of hope and liberation are coded so that oppressed people are able to communicate to their fellow oppressed people in ways in which their message and their intent are shielded from the perceptions of their oppressors These messages by the Jesus of history and by the writers of New Testament and related literature use the language of faith of salvation of Deity and of adversaries of Deity giving words that are commonly used by the oppressed people new and double meanings Within interaction with other scholars who are publishing studies of hidden transcripts this book is an analysis of hidden transcripts within each of the New Testament documents The book is designed to be used in New Testament Studies courses at undergraduate and or graduate levels by study groups and by all persons who desire a more adequate understanding of the Jesus of history his closest followers and their oral and written communications during the first three centuries C E

Hope in the Resurrection John F. Wilson, 2016-12-22 John Polkinghorne ordained member of the Royal Society past President of Queen s College Cambridge Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire 2002 Templeton Prize winner theoretical physicist and theologian writes in breathless style to unfold core Christian doctrine in dialogue with science His work deftly addresses how one would interpret and commend Christian faith in the contemporary world as he elucidates the key topics in the dialogue of religion with science Polkinghorne s work addresses the hope Christians have present and future in the faithfulness of a loving God who stands alongside them today and for all eternity Eschatological hope enables and empowers Christian life and emerges in God s resurrection of Jesus from the horrific crucifixion Polkinghorne ably supports his thesis with a strong argument for the resurrection built on the kenotic acts of God His thesis sees Christian eschatology as the advent of hope the heart of faith In Christian eschatology as argued by Polkinhorne and supported in the work of Jurgen Moltmann and Nicholas T Wright Christ s presence is not some far off event but present reality      Living Hope for the End of Days John S.
