Operations Management A Policy Framework:

Operations Management Ray Wild,1980 Revenue Authorities and Their Boards of Management William Joseph Crandall,Elizabeth Gavin,Ms. Maureen Kidd,Mr. Andrew R Masters,2024-08-22 This technical note provides detailed and updated information on the semi autonomous Revenue Authority RA governance model for revenue administration a model developed 40 years ago and used by some 35 administrations world wide The update is provided through a review of relevant legislation questionnaire results and outcomes of a series of seminars The RA governance model has a unique governance structure that includes a Minister a board of management and a Chief Executive Officer three partners RAs are set up using specific enabling legislation Clarity in the language used in the law is critical for establishing the exact roles of the three partners The board of management is unique in that it usually has a more limited role due in part to the confidentiality of individual taxpayer information than a board of directors in a private sector corporation Emerging issues with these boards are examined and it is noted that some see the RA board role as becoming more closely aligned with private sector boards of directors RAs were initially founded on the belief that more nimble HR practices and appropriate funding would result in more robust revenue administration While it is difficult to establish direct causality between the adoption of the RA governance model and improved revenue administration practitioners are convinced this is the case and that the HR and funding advantages need to be protected International Handbook of Production and Operations Management Ray Wild,1989 Debt and reserves management report 2011-12 Great Britain. Monetary and Capital Markets Department,2019-10-24 This Detailed Assessment of Observance on Insurance Core Principles on Thailand discusses that the government of Thailand has made a concerted effort to develop the insurance sector The government has implemented a series of insurance development plans toward this end Some significant regulatory and supervisory challenges remain however if Thailand is to continue to meet the pressures of a changing market and to continue to build the trust on which future growth depends Consideration should be given to vesting more supervisory authority for key supervisory decisions with the Commission rather than with the Minister and Cabinet Vesting authority with the Commission will help to ensure that the insurance supervisor has adequate powers to meet the objectives of insurance supervision With respect to winding up and exit from the market the insurance legislation should be amended to clearly establish a point at which it is no longer permissible for a troubled insurer to continue in business
