Re Calling Ministry:

Re-Calling Ministry James E. Dittes, 2010-04-01 In the press of everyday considerations pastors sometimes forget why they chose to be ministers in the first place James E Dittes reminds and offers honest poetic observations on the predicament the pressure the particularity and the presence of ministry

Recalling Our Own Stories Edward P. Wimberly, 2019-02-01 How religious caregivers can find spiritual renewal in their own story Recalling Our Own Stories which author Edward P Wimberly describes as a spiritual retreat in book form is designed to help clergy and religious caregivers face the challenges of ministry It is also a valuable resource for practitioners who assist these clergy and caregivers in meeting the challenges of their work Wimberly enables caregivers to map out and come to grips with cultural expectations of their profession He also helps readers explore and edit the mythologies that make up their self image attitudes toward others expectations about their performance and role and convictions about ministry Finally he provides a model for spiritual and emotional review grounded in narrative psychology and spiritual approaches As Wimberly explains this book offers a way to renew our motivation for ministry by reconnecting to our original call visualizing again how God has acted and remains intricately involved in our lives Wimberly demonstrates how religious caregivers often facing burnout can tap the sources of renewal that reside in the faith community

Religious Mourning Nathan Carlin, 2014-04-24 Religious Mourning is about a common experience among those who study religion religious loss When people of faith study religion critically or when life experiences such as death and divorce trigger personal reflection on faith religious intellectuals often become estranged from their own tradition Sometimes this estrangement causes them to leave religion altogether But for those who study religion from a psychological perspective a certain kind of introspective and iconoclastic religiosity can be revived by means of academic writing Religious Mourning explores this phenomenon by focusing on psychobiographical writings about religious leaders including Donald Capps portrait of Jesus of Nazareth James Dittes portrait of Saint Augustine and William Bouwsma s portrait of John Calvin to show how these authors personal lives and especially their experiences of loss influence their scholarship As Capps Dittes and Bouwsma subversively scavenge the lives of Jesus Augustine and Calvin to reverse and restore a religion that is rich with experience including and especially their own they invite us to do the same
