Re Educating German Women:

Re-educating German Women Denise Tscharntke, 2003 This book examines the influence British women exercised on German women after the Second World War as officers in the Women s Affairs Section of the British Military Government and as Visiting Experts in women s affairs invited by the British Foreign Office The British saw that women were the majority of the German workforce and electorate whose active citizenship and labour was necessary for reestablishing the German economy and introducing democracy A special Women s Affairs Section was established with the task to educate German women accordingly The re education of German women centred more on the fulfillment of civic duties than on the extension of women s civic or social rights

Educating the Germans David Phillips, 2018-06-28 Educating the Germans examines the role of the British in the reconstruction of education in occupied Germany from 1945 to 1949 It covers war time planning for a future role in overseeing education at all levels in Germany looks at policy and its implementation describes the British personnel involved and their interaction with German authorities and assesses the lasting effects of the British effort in securing the future development of education from Kindergarten to university in the emerging Federal Republic Thoroughly researched and employing a wide range of sources in Britain and Germany this is an important study for anyone looking to further their understanding of Germany and Britain s relationship with Germany in the immediate post war era
