Reaching In Silence:

Contemporary Verse, 1924 Last Tape on Stage in Translation Burç İdem Dinçel, 2011-11-15 Samuel Beckett's theatrical works maintain a prominent position within contemporary theatre. His plays provide a prodigious potential to study several forms of acting, staging, and dramaturgy, as well as language and translation, thereby setting a fertile ground to tackle the problematic issue of the relationship between theatre criticism and theatre translation criticism. That is precisely what this study examines by drawing attention to the fundamental characteristics of translated theatre texts as blueprints for productions and taking several aspects into account, from directing to acting, from staging to performance, together with the language factor. To that end, Burç İdem Dinçel focuses on one of Beckett's most significant plays, namely Krapp's Last Tape, situating it within the author's oeuvre and, along the way, scrutinising not only the theatrical pieces but also the prose. By looking into the Turkish translations and productions of the play, this book brings forth a new dimension into approaching theatre through translation.

Through Vegetal Being Luce Irigaray, Michael Marder, 2016-07-05 Blossoming from a correspondence between Luce Irigaray and Michael Marder, Through Vegetal Being is an intense personal philosophical and political meditation on the significance of the vegetal for our lives, our ways of thinking, and our relations with human and nonhuman beings. The vegetal world has the potential to rescue our planet and our species and offers us a way to abandon past metaphysics without falling into nihilism. Luce Irigaray has argued in her philosophical work that living and coexisting are deficient unless we recognize sexual difference as a crucial dimension of our existence. Michael Marder believes the same is true for vegetal difference. Irigaray and Marder consider how plants contribute to human development by sustaining our breathing, nourishing our senses, and keeping our bodies and minds alive. They note the importance of returning to ancient Greek tradition and engaging with Eastern teachings to revive a culture closer to nature. As a result, we can reestablish roots when we are displaced and recover the vital energy we need to improve our sensibility and relation to others. This generative discussion points toward a more universal way of becoming human that is embedded in the vegetal world.

Samuel Beckett as World Literature Thirthankar Chakraborty, Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez, 2022-02-24 The essays in this collection provide in-depth analyses of Samuel Beckett's major works in the context of his international presence and circulation, particularly the translation, adaptation, appropriation, and cultural reciprocation of his oeuvre. A Nobel Prize winner who published and self-translated in both French and English across literary genres, Beckett is recognized on a global scale as a preeminent author and dramatist of the 20th century. Samuel Beckett as World Literature brings together a wide range of international contributors to share their perspectives on Beckett's presence in countries such as China, Japan, Serbia, India, and Brazil, among others, and to flesh out Beckett's relationship with postcolonial literatures and his place within the canon of world literature.

Places of the Soul Christopher Day, 2017-09-19 For Christopher Day, architecture isn't just about the appearance of buildings but how they're experienced as places to be in. Occupants' experience can differ radically from designers intentions as their concerns and thinking differ Additionally multi sensory ambience spatial sequential experience and embodied spirit resonate in the human soul Sustainable design means much more than energy efficiency if sustainable buildings don t also nourish the soul occupant building interaction will lack care and eco technologies won t be used efficiently This major revision of his classic text builds on more than forty years of experience ecological design across a range of climates cultures and budgets and 25 years hands on building Treating buildings as environments intrinsic to their surroundings the book explores consensus design economic and social sustainability and how a listening approach can grow architectural ideas organically from the interacting sometimes conflicting requirements of place people and situation This third edition comprehensively revised to incorporate new knowledge and address new issues continues Day s departure from orthodox contemporary architecture offering eye opening insights and practical design applications These principles and guidelines will be of interest and value to architects builders planners developers and homeowners alike Reviews of the first edition one of the seminal architecture books of recent times Professor Tom Wooley Architects Journal The bible of many architects and those interested in architecture Centre for Alternative Technology an inspiration to all those who care about the influence of the environment on Man s health and well being Barrie May The Scientific and Medical Network At last an architect has written a sensitive and caring book on the effects of buildings on all our lives Here s Health This gentle book offers a route out of the nightmare of so much callous modern construction I was inspired Colin Amery The Financial Times

Transcending Sorrow and Suffering (Trust-Test-Taste) Col. Bishan Singh,2014-08-21 Self realization is the key factor to transcend sorrow and sufferings Sorrow and suffering are the products of mind which keeps weaving illusory and imaginary world at its own as it happens during the dream Sorrow and sufferings are dissolved when one goes beyond mind through enriching consciousness free of contents Mind remains restless disturbed and noisy when it is loaded with information and worldly knowledge Non desiring and non wavering mind is required for total transformation to experience the joy and ecstasy of your divine nature Living a self esteemed life empowers man with will wisdom self confidence inner power purity love peace joy enthusiasm and compassion so that man strives without seeking and struggles without greed for a peaceful and harmonious living bringing order and discipline in the world dissolving clash and conflict This is the essence of ancient wisdom and an eternal thought which transformed man to go beyond human sorrows and sufferings Transforming oneself is the greatest effort but most rewarding and paying This wisdom has come to us from trustworthy and enlightened souls of the past It had happened to them through total trust in their true being divinity which they experienced through testing it from within their own self and later tasted it by living life that way with total silence joy and peace You should also trust test and taste The Fruits of Silence Cyril Hephner,1916 The Periodical ,1969 American Commercial Law Series Alfred William Bays,1920 Reaching the Other Shore Sitakant Mahapatra,1992 Chiefly on selected novels of Gopinath Mahanty 1914 1991 Oriya author The Black Cat ,1902 The Hunters of the Silences Sir Charles G.
