Reaching The Inactive Member:

Reclaiming Inactive Church Members Herbert W. Byrne, 2003 This book is designed to provide assistance to pastors and church leaders on how to reclaim inactive church members Actual real life illustrations are provided to show how some churches have made efforts to solve this problem

Stop the Church's Revolving Door Richard M. Wright, 2011-12 Does your church have a revolving door Most churches do not have a ministry to establish and maintain authentic personal relationships with inactive members visitors or prospective members Before implementing this ministry one church failed to stay relationally connected to its members Is your church suffering from the same dilemma This new ministry empowered churches toward improving its church health increasing service opportunities for laypeople and establishing stronger personal relationships It is possible in your church too This book provides a guide toward implementing this crucial ministry in your church It is time to stop your church's revolving door

The Race to Reach Out Michael J. Coyner, Doug Anderson, 2009-06-01 Most church members would tell you that theirs is a friendly congregation eager to welcome visitors and new members into their midst Yet far too many of these same congregations have trouble translating this intention into action Offering a friendly greeting to a new face is important but it is only the first of many steps that congregations must take in order to turn visitors into members and new members into committed disciples The authors believe that to assimilate newcomers into the life and ministry of the congregation the whole church system must be involved Anderson and Coyner demonstrate how to identify and respond to visitors in a nonthreatening yet interested way how to share information about them with the leaders of those ministries and programs in which they would be most interested how best to help them in their decision to become church members and how to help them understand and fulfill their own call to ministry in the congregation They insist that churches be motivated not by a desire for institutional survival or advancement but by a passion for people and their place in the kingdom of God

How to Attract and Keep Active Church Members Donald P. Smith, 1992-01-01 In this study of church growth and membership retention Smith argues that if a church is to survive it must concentrate on keeping its present members as well as attracting new ones Interviewing people from 600 churches of various sizes and reviewing the causes of membership decline and retention in those churches Smith asserts that churches must meet members needs in order to attract and keep them

Called to Witness Jerry L. Schmalenberger, 1993 The Number one priority for many parishes at the present time needs to emphasize moving the new member and or new Christian from loyalty to the local organization to faithfulness in discipleship This work is an attempt to look at the evangelism side of that fellowship call from the Foreword Jerry L Schmalenberger offers insight to all congregations seeking to grow Called To Witness offers a blend of three themes These are parish program emphasis church growth methodology and disciplining In addition the author provides a helpful critique of the church growth movement Chapters focus on Reclaiming the witness Congregational witness Multicultural witness Pastoral witness Jerry L Schmalenberger Berkley California is president and

professor of parish ministry at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary and formerly a parish pastor for 29 years He served as pastor director of evangelical outreach for the Evangelical Lutheran Church and as an evangelist for many years He is in demand as a preacher and lecturer on evangelism and stewardship across the United States How to Reach More People Jerry Wilkins, 2017-10-17 Why do we need better communication skills It s the question many church leaders are asking What can our church do to reach more people The question arises from two convictions First we are commanded to compel people into the Kingdom and we are to be witnesses of Jesus and the gospel to everyone But we have a haunting sense that we have not yet completed this great commission The second conviction is that our church will die if we don t reach more people A changing world is putting our message and method to the test How can we be true to the message and at the same time use all the tools resources and skills we now have available Jerry believes God gives the increase and people don t come to the Father unless the Spirit convicts and draws them But he focuses on the part we must play in the process God s word says we must plant and water the seed of the gospel He says we are to proclaim His truth and compel people into the Kingdom by always communicating the reason for our faith Jerry believes we are inviting but not compelling This book gives clear direction as to how we should word our message and how to use every communication method available to us and in the best possible way He has given us a clear and practical plan for a more effective yet practical strategy of church communication Jerry Wilkins has his B A in marketing and has his Masters from Southwestern Seminary He has studied and applied marketing and communication skills first as a Pastor and then as a denominational leader for thirty years He is respected as a church communication strategist He has authored several books including Marketing Your Sunday School Smooth Sailing Avoiding Storms in Your Ministry and Resolving Conflict God s Way Jerry resides in Alabama with his wife of 50 years and has two grown children and one granddaughter
