Romance, Diaspora, and Black Atlantic Literature
Yogita Goyal, 2010-04-22 Romance Diaspora and Black Atlantic Literature offers a rich interdisciplinary treatment of modern black literature and cultural history showing how debates over Africa in the works of major black writers generated productive models for imagining political agency Yogita Goyal analyzes the tensions between romance and realism in the literature of the African diaspora examining a remarkably diverse group of twentieth century authors including W E B Du Bois Chinua Achebe Richard Wright Ama Ata Aidoo and Caryl Phillips Shifting the center of black diaspora studies by considering Africa as constitutive of black modernity rather than its forgotten past Goyal argues that it is through the figure of romance that the possibility of diaspora is imagined across time and space Drawing on literature political history and postcolonial theory this significant addition to the cross cultural study of literatures will be of interest to scholars of African American studies African studies and American literary studies

Achebe`s Things Fall Apart- diagnosis of decay
Andrea Fischer, 2003-03-08 Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 B University of Tübingen New Philology Fakultät language English abstract Things Fall Apart is Chinua Achebe s first novel It is about the land of the Ibo in the eastern region of present day Nigeria in the period between 1850 1900 It is the period shortly before and after the arrival of the white men in this part of West Africa Achebe s nineteenth century Africa witnesses the end of an era and the beginning of twentieth century Europeanization with all its implied consequences for another stage the future history of postcolonial Africa Things Fall Apart gives us a vision of the Ibo s life in a part of Africa called Umuofia its history and their cultural religious and political traditions Also it allows us an insight into the differences and problems between the established tradition that is the Ibo tradition and the emerging traditions of the white colonizers Things Fall Apart is not only the drama of a whole society but it also reflects the tragedy of one man Okonkwo that is worked out of his personal conflicts as well as out of the contrariness of his destiny This novel shows the changes which have taken place in Ibo as a result of the encounter between Europe and Africa during the imperial colonial period Things Fall Apart consists of three parts the first part is set in Umuofia before the arrival of the white men In the second part the protagonist s Okonkwo s banishment from Umuofia to Mbanta is dramatized and the arrival of the white men is reported The third section shows the tragic fall of Okonkwo and the decay of the old ways of life in Ibo society In my essay I want to discuss whether Achebe s novel is a diagnosis of decay or rather a report on Modernization In my first section I want to give a short insight into the traditional Ibo society The second part will focus on the thematic of decay both for the society as well as for Okonkwo In my next part I will concentrate on aspects of Modernization In the last part of this essay I will try bring this novel in a broader context and will try to examine the aspects of decay and Modernization on the basis of Foucault s discourse theory and therefore his theory on Modernization
