Pumping Iron:

Pumping Iron Charles Gaines, George Butler, 2022-11-19 WHO ARE THEY AND WHY DO THEY DO IT these men who dedicate themselves to building bodies like Hellenistic statues who crisscross the world competing for titles as grandiose yet as publicly uncelebrated Mr America Mr Universe Mr Olympia as their gargantuan physiques whose daily lives are as rigidly defined and regulated by their obsession to mold the ideal body as any other master athlete is towards perfecting his craft Yet rather than the public acclaim that normally follows an athletic triumph only their fellow muscle men know who they are and know the price they have paid to win their incredible bodies Novelist Charles Gaines and photographer George Butler have spent the last two years trying to capture the essence of this strange joyful exotic world We have been to quite a few places tracking bodybuilders seeing contests and putting together the materials here If we felt at times a little like 19th century explorers like Doughty perhaps off trekking through Arabia it was because we found bodybuilding to be as primeval and unmapped as parts of Labrador Nobody we discovered had been back into it to send a report on what it was like This struck us then as peculiar and it still does Building Bodies Pamela L. Moore, 1997 Building Bodies is an exciting collection of articles that strive toward constructing theoretical models in which power bodies discourse and subjectivity interact in a space we can call the built body a dynamic politicized and biological site Contributors discuss the complex relationship between body building and masculinity between the built body and the racialized body representations of women body builders in print and in film and homoeroticism in body building Linked by their focus on the sport and practice of body building the authors in this volume challenge both the way their various disciplines media studies literary criticism gender studies film and sociology have gone about studying bodies and existing assumptions about the complex relationship between power subjectivity society and flesh Body building in practice in representation and in the cultural imagination serves as an launching point because the sport and practice provide ready challenges to existing assumptions about the built body

Impossible Bodies Christine Holmlund, 2013-11-05 Impossible Bodies investigates issues of ethnicity gender and sexuality in contemporary Hollywood Examining stars from Arnold Schwarzenegger and Clint Eastwood to Whoopi Goldberg and Jennifer Lopez Holmlund focuses on actors whose physique or appearance marks them as unusual or exceptional and yet who occupy key and revealing positions in today's mainstream cinema Exploring a range of genres and considering both stars and their sidekicks Holmlund examines ways in which Hollywood accommodates or doesn't a variety of impossible bodies from the outrageous physiques of Dolph Lundgren and Dolly Parton to the almost invisible bodies of Asian Americans Latinas and older actors Out of Bounds Aaron Baker, Todd Boyd, 1997-02-22 Out of Bounds is a collection of essays that regards the media representation of professional sports through the lens of cultural studies Editors Aaron Baker and Todd Boyd contend that the popularity of sports derives not simply from their appeal as leisure entertainment but from their contribution to discussion of larger issues of class race gender and masculinity Essays in the collection challenge media wisdom about the apolitical nature of sports by examining how they contribute to the contested process of defining social identities Included within a broad range of works are Never Trust a Snake WWF Wrestling as Masculine Melodrama Henry Jenkins Mike Tyson and the Perils of Discursive Constraints Boxing Race and The Assumption of Guilt John Sloop and Visible Difference and Flex Appeal The Body Sex Sexuality and Race in the Pumping Iron Films Christine Holmlund Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken,2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation
