Ohio Valley Pottery Towns:

Ohio Valley Pottery Towns Pamela Lee Gray, 2002-11 The Land Act of 1796 opened the gates for a flood of settlers into the lands of the Upper Ohio River Valley The natural clay soils of the valley coupled with an abundance of salt for glazing and the Ohio River as a nearby source for transportation laid the foundation for what would become the pottery capital of the United States Naming their new towns for those they left behind Liverpool Chester Newell English and Irish entrepreneurs established factories for making crockery The industry boomed and by the turn of the twentieth century Ohio Valley pottery was being exported throughout the world The story of pottery production is more than a list of manufacturers the towns that grew around these factories and the lifestyles of the people who worked in them provide the social fabric of the Ohio Valley From the early pioneer villages of the hand thrown period to the towns with bustling shops and regular trolley service residents built homes schools and churches creating thriving communities

From East Liverpool to California Chris Crain, 2025-05-20 From the Author This is the history of what I know of my Taylor family It is about their life in East Liverpool Ohio ELO and their life in California It involves the Knowles family the Taylor family and the Sebring family as I am directly related to each of these pottery families It also involves the Great Depression and my Taylor family moving from Ohio to California in 1934 This after the Knowles Taylor Knowles Company went out of business along with most of the potteries in the East Liverpool area The good news is that without the Great Depression I never would have been born So this is about the Taylor family s riches to rags story While the Taylor family lived in East Liverpool I will rely heavily on my Grandmother Taylor s memory along with her mother Pearl Sebring Taylor s writings while they lived in ELO Fortunately I have always been a collector I started with coins at age seven I grew up in San Clemente California When I was in high school the President and Mrs Nixon bought their home in San Clemente Naturally I began to collect Nixon campaign buttons and later this led to collecting William McKinley and William Howard Taft buttons and their memorabilia as well As you will see my Republican roots run deep My collecting instincts were a very fortunate trait From my Grandmother Taylor s letters to me along with my Great Grandmother Pearl Taylor s scrapbooks I collected a Taylor family treasure trove of history photographs and memorabilia As you might imagine I ve collected a few pieces of the Knowles Taylor Knowles pottery as well In these pages you will see some of my pottery collection which includes pieces from East Liverpool to California This comprises examples from the glory Lotus Ware days in East Liverpool Ohio to the desperate art ware pottery days in Burbank California
