scripture

"He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth." - Isaiah 53:7

notes

Jesus is betrayed by Judas and arrested by the authorities. During His trial before the religious leaders, He endures false accusations and mockery without uttering a word in His defense.

How do we respond?

Are we quick to defend ourselves, or can we trust God's plan and remain composed?

application

Consider moments when you have faced false accusations or unjust treatment.

Reflect on how you responded and how you can embody Jesus' example of trust and composure. Take time this week to practice silence in challenging situations, trusting that God is in control and has a greater purpose.

prayer

With every breath that false judges I am in love of the cross You suffered on my behalf Jesus. When I was torn deep in my sin and far from You, You took my pain and You took my shame. As the sinners nails ripped through Your flesh I am forever grateful that with each nail placed on Your body it represented the sin that You would free me from. When the judge to deal me hard blows for the nail to Your Jesus as the encouragement to my faith, let my faith to You Jesus to remind me that my pain and mistakes are only momentary and that they pale in comparison to the glory that awaits me. Thank You for standing trial so that I can stand in my own life free from the sting of death. In Jesus' Name, Amen.
