Artificial Intelligence and the City Federico Cugurullo, Federico Caprotti, Matthew Cook, Andrew Karvonen, Pauline McGuirk, Simon Marvin, 2023-12-01 This book explores in theory and practice how artificial intelligence AI intersects with and alters the city Drawing upon a range of urban disciplines and case studies the chapters reveal the multitude of repercussions that AI is having on urban society urban infrastructure urban governance urban planning and urban sustainability Contributors also examine how the city far from being a passive recipient of new technologies is influencing and reframing AI through subtle processes of co constitution The book advances three main contributions and arguments First it provides empirical evidence of the emergence of a post smart trajectory for cities in which new material and decision making capabilities are being assembled through multiple AIs Second it stresses the importance of understanding the mutually constitutive relations between the new experiences enabled by AI technology and the urban context Third it engages with the concepts required to clarify the opaque relations that exist between AI and the city as well as how to make sense of these relations from a theoretical perspective Artificial Intelligence and the City offers a state of the art analysis and review of AI urbanism from its roots to its global emergence It cuts across several disciplines and will be a useful resource for undergraduates and postgraduates in the fields of urban studies urban planning geography architecture urban design science and technology studies sociology and politics

Dane Mills Bosley Chris R. Pownall, 2012-06-21 This book provides an industrial and social history of the people and business activities at two mills in rural Cheshire known as Dane Mills Bosley This is where author Chris R Pownall served his engineering apprenticeship between 1959 and 1966 The very fond memories of that period have prompted him to write about the culture as well as the industrial processes in operation at that time There is a brief over view of the history of the mills which date back to the mid eighteenth century They were originally constructed by the famous industrialist Charles Roe who engaged the services of engineer James Brindley to harness waterpower from the nearby River Dane and Bosley Brook The mills have been used for different purposes beginning with the refining of copper and brass into sheet and wire Textile manufacturing both silk and cotton followed on from the metallurgical processes and more recently the mills have been engaged in the grinding of various products and materials ranging from corn in the beginning to a wide range of organic fibres in the present day Chris has focused upon the people employed at the mills during his time listing most of their names and recording stories about fellow workers that have remained in his memory after all this time The book will appeal to those interested in local history as well as followers of our industrial heritage over a period of two and half centuries Inevitably in works by this author there is humour as well as a more serious record of Chris apprenticeship as a fitter plus a short period in the drawing office Book reviews online PublishedBestsellers website
