eight years Mary Lou Finlay had the pleasure of being the co host of one of CBC Radio's most enduring institutions. On any given day she and Barbara Budd interviewed people on subjects varying from the Air India investigation to a man who invented a suit that would withstand an attack from a grizzly bear to a cheese rolling contest in Cheshire. The As It Happens Files gives us the great stories, the hilarious eccentrics, the audience favourites, the poignant moments that make up for many Canadians some of the fondest, most vivid memories of the last decade.

Lost Face Jack London, 1918 The Lost Hunters Joseph Alexander Altsheler, 1920. The Lost Hunters is the second volume of the Great West Series of which The Great Sioux Trail was the first. In this story young Will Clarke who has long been a captive among the Sioux and who has risen to high favor has become Sioux himself not only in manners and customs but in thought. The world is clothed for him in a new atmosphere and he believes with the Indians that good and evil spirits fill air, earth, and water. In truth, all things. Hence his eye and mind in this story are the eye and mind of the Sioux. It is well known that bear, deer, and wolf grow much larger in the great valleys of far Northwestern America than anywhere else in the world and it may be possible that still more gigantic specimens will yet be found in remote regions. The struggle of primeval man with wild beasts carried on for ages is here reproduced in the advent of the Sioux warriors among them armed only with bow and arrow. The names applied to animals and inanimate objects in this book are not the coinage of the author but are those used by the Sioux. Foreword.
