Calling in Today's World Kathleen A. Cahalan, Douglas J. Schuurman, 2016-09-01 Comparative religious insights into the meaning of vocation in today's world. The concept of vocation or calling is a distinctively Christian concern grounded in the long-held belief that we find our meaning, purpose, and fulfillment in God. But what about religions other than Christianity? What does it mean for someone from another faith tradition to understand calling or vocation? In this book, contributors with expertise in Catholic and Protestant Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, and Daoism, and secular humanism explore the idea of calling from these eight faith perspectives. The contributors search their respective traditions, sacred texts, key figures, practices, and concepts for wisdom on the meaning of vocation. Greater understanding of diverse faith traditions, say Kathleen Cahalan and Douglas Schuurman, will hopefully increase and improve efforts to build a better, more humane world.

CONTRIBUTORS Mark Berkson, Confucianism and Daoism; Kathleen A. Cahalan, Catholicism; Amy Eilberg, Judaism; John Kelsay, Islam; Edward Langerak, Secularism; Anantanand Rambachan, Hinduism; Douglas J. Schuurman, Protestantism; Mark Unno, Buddhism.

Publishing from Your PhD Nicola F. Johnson, 2017-05-15 There is consistent pressure on all academics to publish, publish, publish. But not unless they have been awarded their PhD, considered by most to be the starting step of an academic career. So while the pressure is on to obtain the title and then obtain a permanent position and then publish journal articles, there is little support available to researchers in the nascent stage of their careers Publishing from Your PhD precisely focuses on providing early career researchers with emotional and collegial support that is often not available in academe It seeks to dispel nepotistic notions of superiority that places Professors and such on a pedestal It specifically clarifies the difficulty in having written the PhD thesis and then rewriting it to suit the genre of journal articles It does not deal with the how of academic writing in general This book endeavours to shed light on the path one must take to navigate the jungles of academia This is an untrodden path which is unique to every researcher especially those who employ abstract or critical theories in their research and each journey through the jungle is different However because there is little literature about this embryonic journey this book illuminates the processes and difficulties of publishing in journals and culling one's finely honed thesis into small chunks a difficult task to which few admit
