Navigators Log Of A Tour In Bomber Command:

Navigator's Log of a Tour in Bomber Command Jack Rodgers,1985-01-01 RAF Bomber Command in Fact, Film and Fiction Jonathan Falconer,1996 RAF Bomber Command in Fact Film and Fiction is a bibliographical and media guide to the exploits of the command between 1939 1945 setting on record much of what has been written filmed or sound recorded in the English language Flying against Fate S. P. MacKenzie,2017-08-04 During World War II Allied casualty rates in the air were high Of the roughly 125 000 who served as aircrew with Bomber Command 59 423 were killed or missing and presumed killed a fatality rate of 45 5% With odds like that it would be no surprise if there were as few atheists in cockpits as there were in foxholes and indeed many airmen faced their dangerous missions with beliefs and rituals ranging from the traditional to the outlandish Military historian S P MacKenzie considers this phenomenon in Flying against Fate a pioneering study of the important role that superstition played in combat flier morale among the Allies in World War II Mining a wealth of documents as well as a trove of published and unpublished memoirs and diaries MacKenzie examines the myriad forms combat fliers superstitions assumed from jinxes to premonitions Most commonly airmen carried amulets or talismans lucky boots or a stuffed toy a coin whose year numbers added up to thirteen counterintuitively a boomerang Some performed rituals or avoided other acts e g having a photo taken before a flight Whatever seemed to work was worth sticking with and a heightened risk often meant an upsurge in superstitious thought and behavior MacKenzie delves into behavior analysis studies to help explain the psychology behind much of the behavior he documents not slighting the large cohort of crew members and commanders who demurred He also looks into the ways in which superstitious behavior was tolerated or even encouraged by those in command who saw it as a means of buttressing morale The first in depth exploration of just how varied and deeply felt superstitious beliefs were to tens of thousands of combat fliers Flying against Fate expands our understanding of a major aspect of the psychology of war in the air and of World War II The Complete Dambusters Charles Foster,2018-05-08 On 16 May 1943 nineteen Lancaster aircraft from the RAF s 617 Squadron set off to attack the great dams in the industrial heart of Germany Flying at a height of 60ft they dropped a series of bombs which bounced across the water and destroyed two of their targets thereby creating a legend The one off operation combined an audacious method of attack technically brilliant flying and visually spectacular results But while the story of Operation Chastise is well known most of the 133 Dambusters who took part in the Dams Raid have until now been just names on a list They came from all parts of the UK and the Commonwealth and beyond and each of them was someone s son or brother someone s husband or father This is the first book to present their individual stories and celebrate their skill heroism and for many sacrifice A Yank in Bomber Command Robert S. Raymond,1977 Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1985 British Books in Print ,1986 Books in Print ,1991 Airborne in 1943 Kevin Wilson,2018-12-04 The year 1943 saw the beginning of an unprecedented bombing campaign against Germany Over the next twelve months tens of thousands of aircrews flew across the North Sea to drop bombs on German cities They were opposed not only by the full force of the Luftwaffe but by a nightmare of flak treacherously icy conditions and constant mechanical malfunction Most of these courageous crews were either shot down and killed or taken prisoner by an increasingly hostile enemy This is the story of the everyday heroism of these crews in the days when it was widely believed that the Allies could win the Second World War by air alone American pilots had a special role in the Dambusters campaign in particular Even before the attacks on Pearl Harbor scores of eager pilots travelled across the Canadian border to train with other future Dam busters all eager to take part Authoritative and gripping Airborne in 1943 brings these remarkable men and women to vivid life History at War Noble

Frankland, 2012-07-18 History at War is a unique book It throws light on important unexplored aspects of the pursuit of historical truth It tells how alone among historians Noble Frankland fought in the bomber offensive during the Second World War and then together with Sir Charles Webster wrote its official history how he transformed the Imperial War Museum from a dying institution into one of the world's leading historical centres for the study of the conflicts of the twentieth century how he played a major part in television documentary productions including in particular The World at War and how he wrote a series of original rigorously researched historical works In History at War he describes the battles he had to fight against the mandarins and media merchants who sought to impose a spin on history to suit their own ends and were ruthless and unscrupulous in their methods Its meticulous documentation gives a guarantee of authenticity to his staggering account of how those in high places tried to distort history which might otherwise seem scarcely credible The revelations about Bomber Harris relations with his superior Lord Portal during the war and their joint opposition to the two authors account of the strategic air offensive still a highly topical issue will set alight a new debate among military and other historians Unlike most books on the theory and practice of history it does not confine itself to what can be written on the page It also covers Dr Frankland's experience of demonstrating history in museum galleries on the television screen on sites such as Duxford Airfield near Cambridge and on board HMS Belfast in the Pool of London The problem for historians of publishing a full and unbiased account and analysis of controversial events and episodes in politics and international affairs is as acute in the 1990s as it ever has been All readers with a concern for the truth will learn much about such issues from this unflinching and penetrating book Robert Crawford Director General Imperial War Museum it is brilliant rivetingly trenchant and should be required reading for all aspirant historians Professor R B Wernham former Professor of Modern History Oxford It really is a splendid and fascinating story and a sharp warning to historians to beware of mandarins and great commanders In Francis Bacon's categorization Some books are to be tasted some to be swallowed and a few to be chewed and digested It certainly rates among the few Professor Geoffrey Best in TLS The subtitle is exactly right for a book by Noble Frankland a tough character who views the successive phases of his post war life as battles to bring truths and lessons plainly before the public and who can happily conclude that he has been generally successful In at least two fields the history of the most painfully controversial of Allied campaigns in the Second World War and the rescue and make over of the least well known of London's great museums his achievements have been of great national value and importance this astringently truth telling professional autobiography required reading for historians of the British Establishment from Attlee to Macmillan Piers Mackesey Fellow of British Academy and former Fellow of Pembroke College Oxford I admired History at War on many levels characterizations of Webster Bradley Willis etc the balance between Museum Trustees and the chief executive functioning of Civil Service Bomber Command the picture of Noble Frankland's developing career and the qualities it called for etc I often laughed aloud at the wit and the penetrating observations of functioning individuals Also much enjoyed final reflections on history by a practitioner Haven't enjoyed a book so much for ages War Monthly ,1979 Air Navigation from Balloons to Concorde Walter Blanchard,2005 The Aeroplane and Commercial Aviation News ,1961 Interavia ,1958 Aircraft ,1950-10 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1990 Aeroplane and Commercial Aviation News ,1961-04 They Answered the Call Fred Bagley,2007 During the 20th Century Canada participated significantly in three international conflicts The First and Second World Wars and the Korean War In each of these conflicts young Canadians responded voluntarily to their country's call to arms They Answered the Call features the wartime biographies of nine such Canadians all of whom had different personal reasons for answering the call and all of whom had their lives changed by the experience This well researched collection from author Fred Bagley features interviews photographs letters and more De Havilland Gazette ,1956 The Aeroplane ,1958
