Oliver Goldsmith A Georgian Study:

Oliver Goldsmith Ricardo Quintana, 1969      Goldsmith as Journalist Richard C. Taylor, 1993 Indeed the journalistic achievements of Oliver Goldsmith invite a reconsideration of the man doomed for so many years to play Doctor Minor to Johnson's Doctor Major Long before he established a reputation as the author of The Vicar of Wakefield She Stoops to Conquer and The Deserted Village Goldsmith was establishing his unique journalistic voice a voice incredibly diverse if also frequently self-contradictory There is no doubt that Goldsmith was something of a controversial figure working for both of London's monthly book review journals while they were engaged in an ongoing venomous and well-publicized dispute But it is important to remember that he was respected too He did serve after all as principal contributor to several of London's most successful newspapers and magazine miscellanies In this capacity his career intersected with the careers of Arthur Murphy John Newbery David Hume Thomas Gray Edmund Burke and the most prominent booksellers authors and editors of the period As interest in eighteenth-century English journalism continues to accelerate the critical reputation of Oliver Goldsmith which has been dwindling for years may receive an important boost Scholars now have a wealth of primary and critical material from which to construct a contextual framework for understanding literary social and political developments in eighteenth-century England Perhaps this wealth of information will lead them to reassess the man who not only exemplified but also consistently commented on the state of the press in High Georgian England BOOK JACKET

Latitudinarianism and Didacticism in Eighteenth-century Literature Patrick Müller, 2009 The relationship between Latitudinarian moral theology and eighteenth-century literature has been much debated among scholars However this issue can only be tackled if the exact objectives of the Latitudinarians' moral theology are clearly delineated In doing so Patrick Müller unveils the intricate connection between the didactic bias of Latitudinarianism and the resurgent interest in didactic literary genres in the first half of the eighteenth century His study sheds new light on the complex and contradictory reception of the Latitudinarians' controversial theses in the work of three of the major eighteenth-century novelists Henry Fielding Laurence Sterne and Oliver Goldsmith      Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo-Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study      English Literature, 1660-1800 Curt Arno Zimansky, 2015-03-08 The Philological Quarterly's annual bibliographies of modern studies in English neoclassical literature published originally from 1961 to 1970 are reproduced in two volumes Readers will find the same features that distinguished earlier compilations in the series inclusive listing of significant works published in each year including sections on the historical and cultural background as well as literature authoritative reviews of important works critical comments and a full index that is in itself an indispensable reference tool Originally published in 1972 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

Oliver Goldsmith Franklin Cadmus Williams, 1975 Rituals of Spontaneity Lori Branch, 2006 Winner of the Book of the Year Award for the Conference on Christianity and Literature Thomas H Luxon Dartmouth College CHOICE Goldsmith E. Mikhail, 1993-12-15 Magill's Survey of World Literature Frank Northen Magill, 1993 A comprehensive survey of classic world literature with an emphasis on history criticism and mini biographies of noted authors

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation, and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re-shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries.

Eighteenth-century English Literary Studies Waldo Sumner Glock, 1984 Widener Library Shelflist: English literature Harvard University Library, 1971 Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 1997 A hefty one-volume reference addressing various facets of the essay. Entries are of five types: 1. considerations of different types of essay; e.g. moral, travel, autobiographical; 2. discussions of major national traditions; 3. biographical profiles of writers who have produced a significant body of work in the genre; 4. descriptions of periodicals important for their publication of essays; and 5. discussions of some especially significant single essays. Each entry includes citations for further reading and cross-references. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR.

Goldsmith, the Critical Heritage George Sebastian Rousseau, 1974 Studies in Burke and His Time, 1978 Restoration and 18th Century Theatre Research Carl Joseph Stratman, David Gelvin Spencer, 1963 University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Subjects University of California (System). Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 JEGP, Journal of English and Germanic Philology Gustaf E. Karsten, 1983 The Art of the Critic: The enlightenment Harold Bloom, 1985 The Dialogics of Dissent in the English Novel Cates Baldridge, 1994 This book has two goals. One is to demonstrate that, pace many new historicist and neo-Marxist critics, the novel is a mode of discourse potentially subversive of liberal categories and parameters. The other is to intervene in a debate between liberal and leftist camps within Bakhtin studies by arguing that Bakhtin's theories of the novel, though minded yet determined to credit the efficacy of human voices, will allow us to rediscover within that genre a margin of hope that cannot be mistaken for the product of sentimentality or wishful thinking 94 The first goal participates in the effort to engage rather than reject outright or ignore theories of ideology power and discourse deriving principally from Michel Foucault in such a way as to escape their over determined and claustrophobic consequences This corrective endeavor has inspired a number of useful studies from various critical viewpoints including most recently John Kucich s The Power of Lies Transgression in Victorian Fiction 1994 and John Maynard s Victorian Discourses on Sexuality and Religion 1994 from <http://www.jstor.org> June 30 2014
