Ralestone Luck; Andre Alice Norton (illustrated) Andre Alice Norton,2021-04-11 I believe this was the first book Andre Norton ever wrote apparently written she was still a school girl and the second to be published This possibly shows in the writing and the plotting and and so what It s still a great story about some kids who inherit a haunted old mansion in the Deep South of the USA near New Orleans called Pirates Haven They have adventures in the nearby swamps there s a mysterious boy hanging about there s another rival claimant to the house backed up by local thugs there are underground tunnels and lost treasure and it s just a thoroughly good rollicking adventure story It s also fair to say that it is of its time and place in the depiction of the descended from slaves POC characters who inhabit the neighbouring property but I think credit can be given to the author for moving on from this during her writing career and also for writing a protagonist here who is somewhat disabled which can t have been that common in 1938 fiction A room without books is like a body without a soul
