Rise Of Asia:

The Rise of Asia Frank B. Tipton, 1998-05-29 The shifting balance of economic power away from Western Europe and the United States and towards East and Southeast Asia firstly Japan then the small Tiger economies and now the larger nations of Southeast Asia and China the potential Dragons has provoked anger dismay and a search for the secrets of growth and for lessons to be learned The Rise of Asia brings together recent scholarship analysing the process of economic social and political development in East and Southeast Asia from the mid nineteenth century to the present day

China's Rise in Asia Robert G. Sutter, 2005-04-14 China's rapid military and economic growth has fuelled a steady stream of analysis and debate about the PRC's motivations and objectives regarding the United States Yet until now there has not been a sustained single authored assessment in English of China's expanding influence in Asia in the post Cold War period Respected analyst Robert G Sutter draws on his extensive experience in the region to explore the current debate on China's rise and its meaning for U S interests by examining in detail China's current and historical relations with the key countries of Asia He finds a range of motivations underlying China's recent initiatives Some incline Chinese policy to be cooperative with the United States others to be competitive and confrontational Sutter's nuanced study shows that U S power and influence continue to dominate Asia and play a critical role in determining China's cooperative or confrontational approach He argues that the Bush administration's policies of firmness and cooperation have encouraged China to stay on a generally constructive track in the region

Rising Asia and American Hegemony Paul Hong, Young Won Park, 2020-02-07 This book provides an overview of evolving patterns of trade partnership with historical perspective It presents changing requirements of industry competitiveness and explains the vital relationships between trade partnerships and industry competitiveness As well it further examines the interactive relationships between trade partnerships and industry competitiveness In recent years with decreasing strategic alliances among nations and less visibility of international governance mechanisms e.g. WTO and counter to globalization preferential trade agreements and free trade agreements have proliferated among nations At the same time industrial competitiveness is becoming a serious strategic policy priority of nations both advanced and emerging economies Theoretical discussion focuses on the practices of global network capabilities for the top of the pyramid ToP and base of the pyramid BoP Special focus is on trade partnerships and industry competitiveness in the Asian economies China Japan South Korea India Indonesia three ASEAN nations Vietnam Thailand and Malaysia and Mexico Extensive industry and firm level case studies discuss ToP and BoP interface capabilities in the form of manufacturing and services life cycle management which extends value creation and delivery of manufacturing and services This extension integrates the cloud ecosystem such as timely data information knowledge flows via the virtual world and ground value chains such as the flow of complex real goods and services in the visible world

Transnational Education Crossing 'Asia' and 'the West' Le-Ha Phan, 2016-10-04 In this book Phan Le Ha identifies and discusses four growing self sustained sustaining fundamental phenomena in transnational education TNE namely 1 the planned evolving and transformative mediocrity behind the endorsement of English medium education legitimized by the interactive Asia the West relationship 2 the strategic employment of the terms Asia Asian and West Western by all stakeholders in their perceptions and construction of choice quality rigour reliability and attractiveness of programs courses and locations 3 the adjusted desire for an imagined and often misinformed West among various stakeholders of transnational education and 4 the assigned and self realized ownership of English by otherwise normally on the margin groups of speakers A focus on how these phenomena impact questions of identity and desire in TNE is a running theme The above phenomena are discussed against the backdrop of the rise of Asia sentiment and how this sentiment has played out in interactions and relationships between the West and Asia and among Asian institutions and various entities Phan Le Ha s examination of the identified phenomena in TNE has been informed by her multi layered engagement with the dialectic of the Asia the West relationship her critical take on certain pro Asia and decolonisation scholarship and her interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approach to theorise the field and the specific topic under scrutiny Phan Le Ha shows that the current Asia chooses not necessarily by force but largely by will and often with an informed and well articulated agency to go with the idea of the West and often desires an affiliation with the West either directly or indirectly something that is getting more intense in the context of globalization regionalization and commercialization of education The rise of Asia has made the idea of the West even more looked for in Asia TNE in Asia in many ways is the transforming and dynamic transit point a layover that facilitates entry into a wanted destination the West and or the idea of the West The West and Asia need one another more than ever in the context of the internationalization and commercialization of higher education What s more the West and Asia have hardly ever been mutually exclusive but have rather been in an eventful love and obsession relationship with each other This is the very dialectic proposition that Phan Le Ha takes throughout this book while paying specific attention to transnational higher education in the greater Asian region including the Middle East following her several research projects conducted in the region since 2005 to date Transnational Education Crossing the West and Asia explores English Internationalisation of Higher Education and Identity Increasing Academic Monolingualism and English only Package Transnational Education and Dream Realization From the Philippines to Vietnam From Afghanistan to Dubai From Everywhere in Asia to Thailand Desiring International Transnational Education Theorisation of Key Concepts and Next Steps from Here The book will be of interest to researchers in the field of transnational education Asia education and education policy Asia James Wallis, Wallis, James, 1905 Asia and UNCLOS 30 Years' Implementation Nguyen Hong Thao, Vu Hai Dang, 2024-12-01 This book provides critical legal analyses of latest developments in ocean law and policy by leading Asian legal scholars in the 5 years leading up to the 30th anniversary of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS entering into force on 16 November 1994 The Asia s maritime domain including both the Pacific and Indian Oceans is currently facing a plethora of serious challenges ranging from maritime and territorial disputes especially in the South China Sea and East China Sea competition between superpowers piracy and armed robbery at sea the degradation of marine environment IUU fishing to sea level rising This book allows readers to explore and understand how the scholars in the region examine conceive understand and suggest solutions to these challenges

The Arms Race in Asia Andrew T.H. Tan,2013-12-13 This book is the first systematic examination of the emerging arms race in Asia The global trade in arms is to a large degree underpinned by the strong demand for arms in Asia and the Middle East the two largest arms export markets in the world Of these two regions Asia has become particularly significant led by the emergence of China and India as major powers It is therefore not surprising that the rapid military modernisation in Asia accompanied by significant increases in the size and sophistication of armed forces has generated attention as to its trends key characteristics causes and implications This phenomenon which has become evident since the end of the Cold War has also been widely described as an Asian arms race This book evaluates the key conceptual ideas which can shed light on this phenomenon as well as examining the complex mix of internal external and technological factors that have led to its emergence The volume explores the way in which the arms race is leading ultimately to three distinctive blocs in the emerging geostrategic landscape a loose bloc of US allies in the region a counter bloc of potential US adversaries and a neutral bloc of states with industrial age armed forces whose allegiances will vary according to circumstances and geostrategic developments The Arms Race in Asia concludes that if the emerging arms race is left unchecked it is likely that Asia will increasingly become a region of instability marked by conflicts and interstate wars The book will be of great interest to students of Asian politics strategic studies defence studies security studies and IR in general

Liberal Arts Education and Colleges in East Asia Insung Jung,Mikiko Nishimura,Toshiaki Sasao,2016-03-09 This book discusses liberal arts education and liberal arts colleges in the context of East Asia specifically focusing on Japan China and S Korea where it has become an emerging issue in higher education in recent years It first explores the development concepts and challenges of liberal arts education and liberal arts colleges in East Asia It then delineates the implications of the best practices of selected liberal arts colleges inside and outside East Asia and offers policy and pedagogical guidelines for the future of liberal arts colleges and programs in East Asia and beyond

Strategic Stability in Asia Amit Gupta,2008 What do the major states of Asia view as the emerging challenges in their security environment and how can they achieve strategic stability This volume discusses the military diplomatic and economic measures being taken by the major Asian countries and Australia to establish a new framework for strategic stability

Tall Buildings of Asia and Australia Georges Binder,The Images Publishing Group,2001 This title illustrates an excellent way to view the dynamic growth of Asia and Australia and features some of the tallest buildings in the world It would make an excellent reference work

Leading in High Growth Asia Dean Tjosvold,Kwok Leung,2004 Confronted with rapid changes and market place pressures managers throughout Asia are questioning their leadership This book will help them integrate their traditions with modern practices to forge approaches suitable for their cultures and effective for today's global market demands. It also helps Western managers adapt their methods so that they can lead successfully in Asia Pacific. To be successful, Asia Pacific leaders must work to develop effective close relationships with their employees and among their employees. Chapters written by scholars from ten Asia Pacific countries highlight this common theme and also describe the expectations and orientations which managers can expect in a particular country.

Politics in Pacific Asia Xiaoming Huang, 2009-05-15 Using China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Indonesia, and the Philippines as core examples throughout this major new text provides a comprehensive up to date and very accessible introduction to the politics of an increasingly significant and dynamic region of the contemporary world.

Routes in Asia: Routes in Persia and Balochistan, 1878

There Goes the Neighbourhood Michael Wesley, 2011 For the first time in history, Australia will be uncomfortably close to the designs and demarches of competing great powers. In the years ahead, we will no longer be too small to make a difference. In his book, Wesley points to the key economic and political issues that we need to be considering right now as a western country geographically and economically tied to Asia and urgently calls for a renewed public engagement and debate.
