Rievaulx Abbey Community Architecture Memory:

Rievaulx Abbey Peter Fergusson, Glyn Coppack, Stuart A. Harrison, 2006 Situated in the beautiful and remote valley of the River Rye Rievaulx Abbey was founded in 1132 by monks from Clairvaux in France It quickly grew to become the pre eminent Cistercian abbey in Britain This guide includes a tour and history of the site illustrated with full colour maps reconstruction drawings and historical images Rievaulx Abbey Peter Fergusson, 1999 The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Monastic Life in the Medieval British Isles Julie Kerr, Emilia Jamroziak, Karen Stöber, 2018-10-15 This book celebrates the work and contribution of Professor Janet Burton to medieval monastic studies in Britain Burton has fundamentally changed approaches to the study of religious foundations in regional contexts Yorkshire and Wales placing importance on social networks for monastic structures and female Cistercian communities in medieval Britain moreover she has pioneered research on the canons and their place in medieval English and Welsh societies This Festschrift comprises contributions by her colleagues former students and friends leading scholars in the field who engage with and develop themes that are integral to Burton s work The rich and diverse collection in the present volume represents original work on religious life in the British Isles from the twelfth to the sixteenth century as homage to the transformative contribution that Burton has made to medieval monastic studies in the British Isles

Rievaulx Abbey and Its Social Context, 1132-1300 Emilia Jamroziak, 2005 Rievaulx abbey was one of the most prominent houses of white monks Cistercians in England and became in the course of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries an important feature of the ecclesiastical and social landscape of Yorkshire The present work is the first in depth study devoted to Rievaulx s social history The abbey s once extensive archives were largely destroyed after the Dissolution but the surviving late twelfth century cartulary provides a fascinating insight into the process of creating institutional memory preserving and shaping information about various neighbours of the abbey and creating a map of social networks that developed around Rievaulx The complex picture of building and sustaining connections between the abbey and its lay patrons benefactors and neighbours forms a core to this book This study also examines how Rievaulxco existed with other religious institutions in the area and particularly the practical dimension of friendships between abbots declarations of mutual support between monastic communities and how these were reconciled with a fierce competition for land and donations Contacts between Rievaulx abbey and the nearby archbishops of York and bishops of Durham were intense and these contacts demonstrate how important these prelates were as potential supporters and how broader ecclesiastical issues influenced their relationships with Rievaulx Whilst exploring the case of one particular monastery this book is an important contribution to the current debate on the shaping of Cistercian practice and particularly the mechanisms for the interaction between laity and monastic communities during the High Middle Ages The Idea of the Castle in Medieval England Abigail Wheatley, 2015 Medieval castles have traditionally been examined as feats of military engineering tools of feudal control This book presents a different perspective by exploring the castle as a cultural reflection of the society that produced it seen through art literature

Coventry: Medieval Art, Architecture and Archaeology in the City and its Vicinity Linda Monckton, 2017-07-05 The British Archaeological Association's 2007 conference celebrated the material culture of medieval Coventry the fourth wealthiest English city of the later middle ages The nineteen papers collected in this volume set out to remedy the relative neglect in modern scholarship of the city's art architecture and archaeology as well as to encompass recent research on monuments in the vicinity The scene is set by two papers on archaeological excavations in the historic city centre especially since the 1970s and a paper investigating the relationships between Coventry's building boom and economic conditions in the city in the later middle ages Three papers on the Cathedral Priory of St Mary bring together new insights into the Romanesque cathedral church the monastic buildings and the post Dissolution history of the precinct derived mainly from the results of the Phoenix Initiative excavations 1999-2003 Three more papers provide new architectural histories of the spectacular former parish church of St Michael the fine Guildhall of St Mary and the remarkable surviving west range of the Coventry Charterhouse The high quality monumental art of the later medieval city is represented by papers on wall painting featuring the recently conserved Doom in Holy Trinity church on the little known Crucifixion mural at the Charterhouse and on a reassessment of the working practices of the famous master glazier John Thornton Two papers on a guild seal and on the glazing at Stanford on Avon parish church consider the evidence for Coventry as a regional workshop centre for high quality metalwork and glass painting Beyond the city three papers deal with the development of Combe Abbey from Cistercian monastery to country house with the Beauchamp family's hermitage at Guy's Cliffe and with a newly identified stonemasons workshop in the barn at Kenilworth Abbey Two further papers concern the architectural patronage of the earls and dukes of Lancaster in the 14th century at Kenilworth Castle and in the Newarke at Leicester Castle The Four Modes of Seeing Elizabeth Carson Pastan, 2017-07-05 Borrowing its title from Madeline Harrison Caviness's influential work on the modes of seeing articulated by the twelfth century cleric Richard of Saint Victor this interdisciplinary collection brings together the work of thirty scholars from England France Germany Italy Switzerland and the United States Each author has contributed an original article that engages with ideas formulated in Caviness's wide ranging scholarship The historiographic introduction discusses themes in Caviness's publications and their importance for art historical and medieval studies today The book's thematic matrix groups together essays concerned with The Material Object Documentary Reconstruction Post Disciplinary Approaches Multiple Readings Gender and Reception Performativity Text and Image Collecting and

Consumption and Politics and Ideology The contributors include curators art historians historians and literary scholars Their subjects range from medieval stained glass to the nineteenth century Gothic Revival the Sachsenspiegel and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ Many foreground issues of gender reception and textuality which have permeated Caviness's scholarship Some also present approaches to sites that have been the subject of important studies by Caviness including Canterbury Chartres Reims Saint Denis Sens and Troyes The volume offers a broad range of methodological approaches to key topics in the study of medieval imagery and thus highlights the vitality of the field today Art in England Sara N. James, 2016-10-31 Art in England fills a void in the scholarship of both English and medieval art by offering the first single volume overview of artistic movements in Medieval and Early Renaissance England Grounded in history and using the chronology of the reign of monarchs as a structure it is contextual and comprehensive revealing unobserved threads of continuity patterns of intention and unique qualities that run through English art of the medieval millennium By placing the English movement in a European context this book brings to light many ingenious innovations that focused studies tend not to recognize and offers a fresh look at the movement as a whole The media studied include architecture and related sculpture both ecclesiastical and secular tomb monuments murals panel paintings altarpieces and portraits manuscript illuminations textiles and art by English artists and by foreign artists commissioned by English patrons The Archaeology of Destruction Lila Rakoczy, 2008 Buildings and landscapes are traditionally analysed with their construction and use in mind with less interest shown in their destruction or end TM This innovative book canvassing the opinions of historians archaeologists and other professionals highlights the complexity of destruction both as a concept and a phenomenon Drawing from a variety of time periods and cultures it explores the multiplicity of meanings that destruction can have and the many complications this creates Included in this are the politics behind how destruction is remembered or forgotten the logistical and ethical dilemmas it presents us with and the power tensions and transitions that often accompany it One of the most fundamental themes explored in this book is what destruction is who defines it and how we choose to recognise it and why these questions need to be debated It clearly demonstrates the importance of understanding the complexity of destructive acts and argues that the best way to achieve this is by establishing channels of dialogue between archaeologists and other disciplines

Walls and Memory Elizabeth Fentress, 2005 The abbey of San Sebastiano which lies not far from the town of Alatri in Southern Lazio preserves within its walls almost fifteen hundred years of history This history is unusually bound to a number of important figures from Saint Benedict to Pope Nicholas V and his circle of humanists For the past four years a small team has been investigating the standing structures of the abbey analyzing the stratigraphy of the standing walls and tracing the various phases through the building The study has produced some startling discoveries the plan and preserved walls of one of the oldest monasteries in Europe and one of the earliest Renaissance villas The book gives an account of the architecture and the history of the building showing how each phase relates to the last both structurally and thematically The project was initiated at the American Academy in Rome where Elizabeth Fentress was Andrew Mellon Professor and Caroline Goodson Margaret L Laird and Stephanie C Leone were Fellows Margaret Laird and Stephanie Leone are now assistant professors at the University of Washington Seattle and at Boston College Other contributors include Caroline Bruzelius Professor of the History of Art at Duke University Antonio Manfredi Vatican Library Serena Romano Professor of the History of Art at the University of Lausanne Marco Rossi director of the Museum of Alatri and Ingrid Rowland Andrew Mellon Professor at the American Academy in Rome

Monastic Spaces and Their Meanings Megan Cassidy-Welch,2001 The author focuses on the Cistercian abbeys of northern England during the period 1132 1400 and supplies a microhistory of cultural textual personnel and architectural comparisons

Religion and the Arts ,2001 Religion and the Arts is devoted to the study of this rapidly expanding interdisciplinary field It aims among other things to promote the development of discourses for exploring the religious dimensions of the verbal visual and performing arts
