Red Iron Nights Glen Cook,1991-09-01 Blood soaked blades have been taking their toll among the luscious lovelies in Garrett s home city of TunFaire And though Garrett can be as civic minded as the next guy unless the next guy is Captain Block of the Watch the private eye isn t sure he really wants to take on a serial killer psycho who does too good a carving job and never leaves any of the blood behind Still having Block pay him for his services with lots of ill gotten government funds and having his own partner the Dead Man strenuously urge him to take the case prove an irresistible combination for Garrett And so he begins a search that would take him from the lowest slums to the highest estates from confrontations with magic spitting enemies to run ins with the king of crime s wayward daughter to a final encounter with an ancient evil that has once again been loosed on his unsuspecting town Rose Macleod Alice Brown,2022-12-13 Rose Macleod follows the relationship between grandmother and granddaughter Madam Fulton and Electra Madam Fulton a writer receives acclaim for her writing but won t pursue it further much to her granddaughter s annoyance While granny chooses not to pursue a writing career Electra navigates relationships and begins to work apart from her beloved grandmother Alice Brown is an American novelist and short story writer She is best known for her tales about New England and as a writer of local colour stories Born in New Hampshire in 1857 Brown s stories often portray a female protagonist in a domestic setting Her first novel Stratford by the Sea was published in 1884 It cemented Brown as part of the Boston literary scene but by the time she died in 1948 aged 91 many of her stories had been forgotten about and were no longer being published Aurora the Magnificent Gertrude Hall Brownell,1917 The Century Josiah Gilbert Holland,Richard Watson Gilder,1917 Music Trades ,1977 I Believe in Man Leon McCord,1929 Aurora the Magnificent Gertrude Hall Brownell,2022-07-20 In Aurora the Magnificent Gertrude Hall Brownell weaves a narrative resplendent with the cultural vibrancy and historical nuances of early 20th century Florence Italy The protagonist Mr Foss a United States consul embarks on a journey that transcends the mere physical perambulations in the picturesque environs of Florence Brownell s prose masterfully captures the consul s intellectual and emotional forays as his desire to pen a book grows amidst the lush backdrop of Florentine hills and the compelling presence of Michelangelo's works. The evocative descriptions and the interplay between the landscape and Foss's aspirations lend the novel a literary style that is both reflective and richly descriptive, placing it within the tradition of novels that explore the intersection of place, creativity, and personal growth. Gertrude Hall Brownell throughout her career demonstrated a keen sensitivity to the aesthetic and historical dimensions of locale, which is palpable in Aurora the Magnificent. It is plausible that her own experiences and observations as a well-traveled individual and a lover of the arts have deeply informed the narrative. Brownell's ability to create characters like Mr. Foss, who find in their surroundings both muse and challenge, suggests an intimate knowledge of the transformative power that a deep engagement with culture and heritage can wield on the human spirit. Aurora the Magnificent is recommended for readers who cherish novels that offer a tapestry of introspection, a portal into bygone eras, and a celebration of humanistic pursuits against the tableau of the world's great cities. Brownell's eloquent articulation of her protagonist's journey toward self-realization and artistic expression invites engagement with universal themes of aspiration and the search for beauty within life's constraints. This book is especially suited for those who have ever felt the stirring of creativity within themselves, inspired by the world's enduring monuments and the subtle yet powerful narratives they embody.
