Making Spaces Citizenship And Difference In Schools:

Making Spaces: Citizenship and Difference in Schools T. Gordon, J. Holland, E. Lahelma, 2000-01-28 This book uses an ethnographic cross cultural approach to study everyday life in secondary schools in London and Helsinki Employing a metaphor of dance it explores the relationship between the official school correct steps the informal school improvised steps and the physical school the ballroom Practices and processes of differentiation marginalisation and of co operation are explored in relation to gender and its intersections with social class and ethnicity The concluding question who are the wallflowers is addressed through a critique of New Right politics and policies in education Making Spaces Tuula Gordon, Janet Holland, Elina Lahelma, 2000 This book uses an ethnographic cross cultural approach to study everyday life in secondary schools in London and Helsinki Employing a metaphor of dance it explores the relationship between the official school correct steps the informal school improvised steps and the physical school the ballroom Practices and processes of differentiation marginalisation and cooperation are explored in relation to gender and its intersections with social class and ethnicity The concluding question who are the wallflowers is addressed through a critique of New Right politics and policies in education Citizenship and Education in Twenty-eight Countries Judith Torney-Purta, 2001 This volume reports on students knowledge of fundamental principles of democracy their skills in interpreting political communication their concepts of democracy and citizenship their attitudes related to trust in institutions the nation immigrants opportunities and women s political rights and their expectation for future participation in civic related activities Thinking Differently Gabrielle Griffin, Rosi Braidotti, 2002-10 Presentation sous <http://www.zedbooks.co.uk> This is the first book to ask whether there is a specifically European dimension to some of the major issues in Women s Studies In doing so it fills some of the gaps in our knowledge about women and enriches debates hitherto dominated by Anglo American influences Among the new areas of enquiry opened up are Europe s experience of repeated warfare has impacted significantly on women Hence contributions focus on women and militarism and ethnic cleansing as an attack on the family The abidingly problematic relationship between feminism and anti semitism and issues of migration and whiteness in a context where racism reflects the colonial histories of particular European countries The importance of passion the emotions and psychoanalytical theory for the politics of certain European countries The decline of the welfare state across Europe the issue of the relationship between womens rights and human rights and the rise of the phenomenon of the single woman Reading feminism from a European perspective enables readers to reflect upon the ways changes in political social and cultural positions and practices over the past century in Europe have impacted on feminist thinking and theorizing The volume also raises important issues about the transfer of feminist concepts across cultures and languages And to English speaking audiences the volume will offer different viewpoints on some of the key debates Political Socialisation, Participation, and Education Heinz Sünker, Russell Francis Farnen, 2003 Given the catastrophic history of the short 20th century Hobsbawm the crucial question facing the new millennium all over the world is that of the future social as well as political development At the centre of our engagement with this question should lie reflections on participatory forms of democratisation in as many societies around the globe as possible so as to make globalisation more than simply an economic theme Such reflections as the contributions in this book show from this perspective would also examine the possible ways in which relations might be constituted within political socialisation participation and education These concepts are in turn to be explored in the substantive discussions of democracy and democratisation in relation to individuals as well as political systems If educational policy is social policy if a democratic society demands citizens who are educated and thus capable of political action the themes Political Education and Political Socialisation need to be addressed anew and this is equally important for a rethinking of the future of the political more generally The contributions to the book contribute to a challenging debate

Flexible Childhood? Helmut Wintersberger, Helga Zeiher, 2007 Children's spaces are widening culturally and socially Socially children's spaces are more often multilocal Culturally they are enlarged through mobility in the globalized and virtual spaces in the media saturated world Children's times are also less confined by strict borderlines The more flexible and individualized use of time in the world of work impacts on children's lives in families day care and school The chapters of this volume each present particular temporal and spatial aspects of social change in childhood The book is directed toward considering the impact of such change on children's welfare As former boundaries between generations begin to blur and neo liberal forces enter all realms of people's lives it can no longer be taken for granted as it was in former periods of modernity that continued efforts to realize the childhood project will automatically guarantee the best interest of the child With respect to children's welfare in time and space Flexible Childhood discusses tensions between demands from the market economy dynamics of rationalization and technology and visions of a good childhood Together with the above companion volume Childhood Generational Order and the Welfare State also by the University Press of Southern Denmark this book is the final result of COST Action A19 Children's Welfare which has been supported by the European COST Framework
